WBNS-FM/AM QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAMS LIST
4th QUARTER 2012

Attached are the top issues of importance to our community, as determined by ascertainment interviews conducted from October 1, 2011-September 30, 2012. Also listed with each issue are samples of non-entertainment programming to address these issues. All were broadcast during the period October 1 through December 31, 2012. Date, title, segment length (or story summary) and brief subject matter are listed. With one week's exception Columbus Perspective aired on Sunday mornings from 6:00am to 7:00am on WBNS-AM (1460) and from 7:00am to 8:00am on WBNS-FM (97.1).

The dates the programs aired are listed on the logs.

COLUMBUS PERSPECTIVE: 4th QUARTER 2012

1. EMPLOYMENT/ECONOMY

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
10/7/13	Congressman Pat Tiberi	He talks about his redrawn district, saying the issues are mostly the same—jobs and the economy. He also talks about the need to change the tax code and to get control of entitlement spending. He says the federal deficit is a huge concern, and talks about his frustration with political gridlock in Washington.	16:00
10/7/13	Democratic candidate for Congress Jim Reese	He says the tax code needs to be changed so corporations and the wealthy are not getting breaks they shouldn't, saying it gives companies incentives to relocate overseas. He also says trade policies with China need to be adjusted so the U-S is playing on a level field.	16:00
10/21/12	Ohio Department of Job and Family Services Communications Deputy Director Ben Johnson	He says September unemployment in Ohio was 7%, down from 7.2% the previous month.	3:00
10/28/12	Candidates for the 3rd Congressional district: Democrat Joyce Beatty; Libertarian Richard Ehrbar; Green Party candidate Robert Fitrakis; and Republican Chris Long	Each provided a one-minute opening statement, then each answered these questions: What is your economic vision for Ohio for the next five years? How do you plan to improve the educational system in the United States? How do you plan to improve the healthcare system in the U.S.? If elected, what one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	20:00
10/28/12	Franklin County Commissioner Paula Brooks (her opponent James Pfaff did not respond to a request to participate)	She provides a one-minute opening statement and then answered the following questions: What do you plan to do to improve the economy and bring businesses to Central Ohio? What do you plan to do to ensure fiscal responsibility if elected? How would you encourage ethics and integrity in Franklin County? What one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	5:00

11/4/12	U. S. Senate Candidates Sherrod Brown, Josh Mandel, and Scott Rupert	Each gave a one-minute opening statement then were given one minute to answer each of these questions: What is your economic vision for Ohio for the next five years? How do you plan to improve the education system in the U-S? How do you plan to improve the U-S health care system? If re-elected what one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	15:00
11/4/12	12th District Congressional candidates Pat Tiberi and Jim Reese 15th District Congressional candidates Pat Lang and Steve Stivers	Each candidate were asked to provide a one minute statement, then were given one minute to answer these questions: What is your economic vision for Ohio for the next five years? How do you plan to improve the educational system in the United States? How do you plan to improve the healthcare system in the U.S.? If elected, what one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	10:00
11/25/12	Columbus Mayor Michael Coleman	He talks about bipartisan efforts and how they can apply in Washington. He wrote an op-ed that ran in the New York Daily News, encouraging President Obama and members of Congress to work together to deal with the upcoming "fiscal cliff." He also talks about how Columbus got through the recession and raised taxes—something that many in Congress are resisting.	5:00
12/9/12	Laura Speer with Annie E. Casey Foundation	She talks about unemployed and under-employed youth and young adults in Ohio, saying the problem is at its worst in decades nationally. About 60% of those 20-24 are employed, and about 25% of those 16-19 are employed—the lowest since World War II. She says young people are competing with more unemployed older Americans, including seniors who have not yet retired or who are supplementing Social Security with part-time jobs. She says the national priority for this problem should be set higher.	11:00

12/9/12	Gretchen Hamler with Public Notice a Washington-based independent non-profit group that works to provide facts and insight on the economy and how government policy affects Americans' financial well-being	She discusses the "fiscal cliff," saying both sides need to steer away from talking about voter mandates in the wake of the election and instead find a way to work out differences and accept compromise. She says dragging it out is hurting the economy as people wait for a solution.	14:00

2. GOVERNMENT

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
10/7/13	Congressman Pat Tiberi	He talks about his redrawn district, saying the issues are mostly the same—jobs and the economy. He also talks about the need to change the tax code and to get control of entitlement spending. He says the federal deficit is a huge concern, and talks about his frustration with political gridlock in Washington.	16:00
10/7/13	Democratic candidate for Congress Jim Reese	He says the tax code needs to be changed so corporations and the wealthy are not getting breaks they shouldn't, saying it gives companies incentives to relocate overseas. He also says trade policies with China need to be adjusted so the U-S is playing on a level field.	16:00
10/14/12	Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine	He says he disagrees with the U. S. Supreme Court's decision that the Affordable Care Act is constitutional. But he says one aspect of the court ruling gave states a better option about Medicaid going forward. He says it's true that aspects of the plan are similar to what Republicans have proposed in the past and if it is ever voted out by Congress certain elements need to be restored, such as ending pre-existing conditions.	9:00

10/14/12	Ohio State Medical Association Senior Director of Government Relations Tim Maglione and Universal Health Care Action Network of Ohio Project Director Kathleen Gmeiner, and American Health Lawyers Association incoming President Peter Pavarini American Health Lawyers Association	They each talk about health care. Gmeiner says the High Court's decision is great news for Americans, expanding coverage to 30 million Americans and reducing costs for Medicare recipients. Maglione says most of the Act hasn't been implemented yet so there will be a lot of complications in the future. Pavarini says eventually this will lead to more streamlining of medical bills and a better understanding of health care, but that this is years away.	12:00
10/21/12	Candidates for U. S. Senate, Senator Sherrod Brown and Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel	They offer their opening statements in a debate, as well as a discussion of issues including health care, Medicare, and integrity in office.	21:00
10/21/12	Independent U. S. Senate candidate Scott Rupert, who did not participate in a debate between other candidates	He says it's time for government to compromise on important issues and for partisan bickering to stop.	1:00
10/28/12	Candidates for the 3rd Congressional district: Democrat Joyce Beatty; Libertarian Richard Ehrbar; Green Party candidate Robert Fitrakis; and Republican Chris Long	Each provided a one-minute opening statement, then each answered these questions: What is your economic vision for Ohio for the next five years? How do you plan to improve the educational system in the United States? How do you plan to improve the healthcare system in the U.S.? If elected, what one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	20:00
10/28/12	Candidates for Ohio Supreme Court: Republican Justice Terrance O'Donnell and Democratic challenger Michael Skindel; Republican Justice Robert Cupp and his challenger, Democrat William O'Neill; and Republican challenger Sharon Kennedy and her opponent, Democratic Justice Yvette McGee-Brown.	Each provided a one-minute opening statement, then answered these questions: What is your vision for the future of our judicial system? What changes would you advocate for the current judicial system and why?	16:00
10/28/12	Franklin County Commissioner Paula Brooks (her opponent James Pfaff did not respond to a request to participate)	She provides a one-minute opening statement and then answered the following questions: What do you plan to do to improve the economy and bring businesses to Central Ohio? What do you plan to do to ensure fiscal responsibility if elected? How would you encourage ethics and integrity in Franklin County? What one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	5:00

11/4/12	U. S. Senate Candidates Sherrod Brown, Josh Mandel, and Scott Rupert	Each gave a one-minute opening statement then were given one minute to answer each of these questions: What is your economic vision for Ohio for the next five years? How do you plan to improve the education system in the U-S? How do you plan to improve the U-S health care system? If re-elected what one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	15:00
11/4/12	12th District Congressional candidates Pat Tiberi and Jim Reese 15th District Congressional candidates Pat Lang and Steve Stivers	Each candidate were asked to provide a one minute statement, then were given one minute to answer these questions: What is your economic vision for Ohio for the next five years? How do you plan to improve the educational system in the United States? How do you plan to improve the healthcare system in the U.S.? If elected, what one main goal do you hope to accomplish?	10:00
11/11/12	Comeback America Initiative C. E. O. Dave Walker, also with the Ten Million A Minute Bus Tour coming through Ohio	He says he rejects the thought that the U. S. is dealing with a $16-trillion debt. He says it's $70-trillion when you add Social Security and Medicare and it increases by $10-million per minute. He says members of Congress needs to be held more accountable and not afraid to lose their jobs in dealing with this problem.	10:00
11/18/12	Ohio Secretary of State Jon Husted	He talks about the election process, saying it went smoothly. He also addressed a court battle to prevent weekend in-person early voting on the final weekend before the election. He says he was not trying to suppress voting, that he was trying to uphold state law which had been approved by the Ohio legislature.	9:00
11/18/12	Former Ohio House Speaker JoAnn Davidson	She talks about the need for the Ohio legislature and Congress to work across party lines to solve important issues. She says both sides need to realize they don't have all the answers and need to be able to reach out.	5:00
11/18/12	Ohio Republican and Democratic strategists Terry Casey and Dale Butland	They discuss the election results	4:00

11/25/12	Columbus Mayor Michael Coleman	He talks about bipartisan efforts and how they can apply in Washington. He wrote an op-ed that ran in the New York Daily News, encouraging President Obama and members of Congress to work together to deal with the upcoming "fiscal cliff." He also talks about how Columbus got through the recession and raised taxes—something that many in Congress are resisting.	5:00
11/25/12	Ohio Republican and Democratic strategists Terry Casey and Dale Butland	They discuss Ohio politics, including stalled legislation that would restrict abortions in Ohio.	9:00
11/25/12	National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare C.E.O. Max Richtman	He says Medicare is the most urgent problem, saying entitlement programs are never dealt with properly in Congress because members are afraid of political fall-out that could happen if changes or adjustments are made. He opposes a "voucher system" that Congressman Paul Ryan has proposed, saying insurance companies would not cover high-risk seniors under a more privatized system like that. He also says he wishes the Obama Administration had never proposed and implemented the payroll tax cut, which reduced money going into the programs.	10:00
12/2/12	Faith 2 Action President Janet Porter	She talks about the Heartbeat Bill, which died in the Ohio Senate after being approved by the House. She calls for the Senate to oust President Tom Niehaus and install next year's President, Keith Faber, now so the bill can come up for a vote. She also says that the issue of whether Ohio would be able to handle the 26,000 additional children born in the state each year (260,000 over 10 years) is not the issue—that saving those babies is the priority.	24:00
12/2/12	State Representative Jay Hottinger	He talks about end of year state legislature, which included the stalled Heartbeat Bill and an effort to put Planned Parenthood on a lower priority of funding in Ohio. He also talks about his presidential candidate Mitt Romney losing the election, saying the Obama team did a great job of getting out the vote.	5:00

12/2/12	State Senator Eric Kearney	He says because of redistricting the Democrats have an uphill battle to win seats in the House and Senate, even though from a statewide perspective the House Democrats received more votes than Republicans.	5:00
12/2/12	Political strategists Bob Clegg and Dale Butland	They discuss Ohio politics.	6:00
12/9/12	Gretchen Hamler with Public Notice a Washington-based independent non-profit group that works to provide facts and insight on the economy and how government policy affects Americans' financial well-being	She discusses the "fiscal cliff," saying both sides need to steer away from talking about voter mandates in the wake of the election and instead find a way to work out differences and accept compromise. She says dragging it out is hurting the economy as people wait for a solution.	14:00
12/16/12	Congressman Pat Tiberi	He talks about the "fiscal cliff." Tiberi says he still does not support raising taxes on wealthier Americans, but does support making changes in the tax cut which would result in additional revenue to the government from the wealthy. He says President Obama has not been a good negotiator during this ordeal, failing to make adequate cuts that are necessary to rein in debt.	7:00
12/16/12	Ohio House Speaker Bill Batchelder	He says he expects the state legislature to side with Governor Kasich next year on the Governor's desire to increase the severance tax on oil and gas drillers coming to the state to take advantage of deposits in the Utica Shale of Eastern Ohio. He says the issue was too complicated to pass this year. He also says that while the state now has a $500-million rainy day fund, it is not large by historical standards and may be too soon to talk about kicking that back to local governments that had funding cut in the last state budget.	7:00
12/16/12	Ohio political strategists, Republican Bob Clegg and Democrat Dale Butland	They discuss Ohio politics	4:00
12/23/12	State Representative Bob Hagan	He talks about his desire to slap a higher tax on the oil and gas industry in Ohio than Governor Kasich wants, and use that revenue to help schools and local governments rather than giving Ohioans a state income tax cut as the Governor plans.	9:00

12/23/12	Congressman Steve Stivers	He talks about the "fiscal cliff" talks, saying there needs to be more spending cuts, and believes it will go down to the last minute before an agreement is reached. Stivers says he's comfortable with some cuts to defense spending, noting that the U. S. still has military bases in Western Europe where there hasn't been a threat since 1989.	7:00
12/23/12	Ohio political strategists, Republican Terry Casey and Democrat Dale Butland	They discuss various Ohio political topics.	5:00
12/23/12	Internal Revenue Service spokeswoman Jennifer Jenkins.	She discusses end-of-year giving, saying it's not too late to save on taxes this year through charitable giving.	10:00
12/30/12	Ohio Oil and Gas Association Executive Vice President Tom Stewart	He talks about his opposition to an increase in taxes on the oil and gas industry proposed by Governor John Kasich. Stewart says it doesn't matter that other states similar taxes because it is unfair to provide a state income tax cut by burdening of a single industry. He also said the practice of hydraulic fracturing (or fracking) has been proven to be safe	8:00
