Average sale price for a home in Ohio is now $148,000—compared to about $135,500 a year ago. He also says the real estate industry is hiring new agents again after losing thousands of them during the recession. He says he's expecting construction jobs to begin to return in big numbers as well in the next year or so.	16:00

2. GOVERNMENT

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
4/7/13	Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel	He talks about his defeat in the U. S. Senate race last year. He says it's not the first race he's lost and he doesn't dwell on it, instead focusing on his job as treasurer. But he does say he and other conservatives need to spend more time relaying their message to African-Americans and other minorities in urban areas. 4/21/13	Ohio House Finance Committee Chairman State Representative Ron Amstutz	He talks about the leadership decision to remove Medicaid expansion from the budget and to work separately on that issue to reform it. He says there are too many uncertainties to approve it without further study.	9:00
4/21/13	Tom Zowastowski, a Portage County tea party leader who is running for chairman of the Ohio Republican Party	He says the party is losing touch with its conservative base, with Governor Kasich wanting to expand Medicaid, Senator Rob Portman supporting gay marriage, and Matt Borges running for chairman of the party with his background as former lobbyist for Equality Ohio—a gay right advocacy group.	7:00

4/21/13	Ohio Right to Life president Mike Gonidakis and NARAL Pro Choice Ohio Executive Director Kelly Copeland	They debate Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine's recent letter to the Obama Administration asking that private companies be given the choice to opt out of providing contraception in health care plans. DeWine calls it a religious liberty issue and Gonidakis says he agrees. Copeland says it is a women's health issue.	8:00

4/28/13	Newly elected Ohio Republican Party Chairman Mat Borges	He says he's not concerned about unhappy Republicans who are making plans to challenge some GOP members, including Governor Kasich, because of some issues they disagree with (Medicaid expansion, for example). Borges says the governor is a dynamic leader who has stopped the bleeding of jobs and balanced the budget without raising taxes. He says disagreements over state budget issues is nothing new and there's a long way to go and time for differences to be worked out.	7:00
4/28/13	Former Ohio Democratic Party Chairman David Leland	He says Democrats were in a similar position in 2010 that Republicans now enjoy—holding the majority of statewide offices and that the political landscape can change quickly in Ohio. He says failure to expand Medicaid in Ohio would be a big issue in the state and he says it is being hijacked by a small group of "Republican right-wingers" who are controlling the caucus.	6:00

4/28/13	Political strategists Dale Butland (Democrat) and Bob Clegg (Republican)	They briefly discuss a number of state political issues including whether or not Matt Borges is the right choice to be chair of the Ohio Republican Party, whether the Tea Party is helpful or hurtful to Republicans in Ohio, on whether David Pepper (who ran and lost against Dave Yost for Treasurer in last statewide election) has a chance to beat Mike DeWine for Attorney General, on whether the Heartbeat Bill will be back this year and will be approved this time, and on whether there should be reductions on Social Security benefits.	4:00
5/5/13	Generation Opportunity President Evan Feinberg	This is an advocacy group for young adults. He talks about the difficulty college grads are having finding work. 5/5/13	State Senator Kevin Bacon	He discusses Medicaid expansion, saying the House has set the course by refusing to put expansion in the federal budget so the Senate is moving forward on its budget work without the expansion, which Governor Kasich wants. Bacon says both chambers are studying the issue and will work jointly to come up with a solution to reform Medicaid that could include more Ohioans in the program.	6:00
5/5/13	Columbus Dispatch reporter Jim Siegel	He discusses Medicaid expansion and why Republicans in the state legislature don't support it. He says they see it as a program that won't help people become self-sufficient, which is what they are looking at in efforts to reform the health program.	4:00

5/5/13	Political strategists Sam Gresham (Democrat) and Terry Casey (Republican)	They discuss various political issues including whether Ed Fitzgerald, the Democrat running for Governor, can be a serious challenger to Republican John Kasich, on whether Internet cafes will be banned for good in Ohio or find a loophole and return in another form, on whether voter suppression will be a rallying point for Democrats who accuse Republicans of doing, on whether Medicaid expansion will happen in a stand-alone bill since it's not in the budget bill, and on what the legacy is of President George W. Bush.	5:00
5/12/13	Political strategists Dale Butland (Democrat) and Terry Casey (Republican)	They briefly discuss various political issues, including how bad the Columbus City Schools attendance scandal is, whether a Right To Work measure (to allow workers to opt out of union dues and membership) will be on the statewide ballot in November, why Ohio Republican Senator Rob Portman's favorability rating is falling, Ohio Democratic Senator Sherrod Brown's charge that President Obama is too close to Wall Street, whether new Ohio GOP Chair Matt Borges can bring the Tea Party back into the Republican Party fold, and whether the hospital lobbyists can convince lawmakers to expand Medicaid,	5:00

But others say they are hurt if they collect the tax because competitors who don't offer the product for less.	7:00
5/19/13	Political strategists Sam Gresham (Democrat) and Bob Clegg (Republican)	They discuss various Ohio political issues including whether the Internet sales tax is inevitable and whether it's good, on whether a measure to legalize marijuana will be on the November ballot in Ohio, on whether entertainment districts should be exempt from open container laws—the Arena District in Columbus, for example, on whether Medicaid expansion would pass if it was put to a statewide vote, and on whether reports of the Republican Party struggling due to gun rights and immigration are over-rated	5:00

5/26/13	Constitutional attorney Maurice Thompson, also leader of the 1851 Center for Constitutional Law	He discusses the IRS's targeting of conservative groups, saying a number of tea party and other conservative groups in Ohio were targeted by the IRS. He's involved in a lawsuit against the IRS and says the case should actually be tried in Ohio since it involves the Cincinnati IRS office. Thompson says his agency was also targeted.

6/2/13	Statehouse reporters Jim Otte and Bill Cohen (retired)	They talk about the difficulty the Republicans are having within their own party—more conservative tea party members are at odds with Governor Kasich on many issues. They also talk about the general bickering between the two parties being more vocal and divisive than in previous eras.	8:00
6/2/13	Political strategists Dale Butland (Democrat) and Terry Casey (Republican)	They discuss state politics, including whether the scandal involving the IRS targeting of conservative groups is winding down or still building, whether voter fraud or suppression is real in Ohio, whether military drones are here to stay, and whether Democrats will have any success with amendments in the state budget	5:00
6/2/13	Laurie Johnson with the National Resources Defense Council	She discusses her perspective on what she says are the costs of climate change. She says a new study shows tax dollars are increasingly paying for damages caused by disasters such as tornadoes, hurricanes, droughts and wildfires, rather than insurance companies. She says in 2012 insurance companies covered only $33-billion of the $139-billion in losses, with the government picking up the rest. She said it underscores the importance of reducing emissions and pollution because she says climate change is behind the increase in natural disasters.	19:00

6/9/13	Milliman Inc. Actuary Jim O'Connor	He says for people who do not qualify for a federal subsidy who purchase individual insurance they could see a substantial cost increase. He says employer-provided insurance is likely to go up next year the usual 6% plus another 3-4% beyond that.	10:00
6/2/13	Incoming Ohio House Minority Leader, State Representative Tracy Maxwell-herd	She says she believes there are enough Republicans in the House to expand Medicaid but House Speaker Bill Batchelder will not bring it to a vote, preferring instead to reform the plan before putting it up for a vote.	9:00
6/16/13	Ohio Auditor Dave Yost	He talks about the controversies surrounding JobsOhio. He says he has aggressively pursued his responsibility to audit the agency over the objections of Governor John Kasich. Kasich's administration has since made moves to try and block further audits by relying only on state liquor profits and declaring that is not public money. Yost says JobsOhio is not exactly a private entity but says if the rule of law now says it is he cannot rely just on his own opinion to pursue such audits in the future.	8:00
6/16/13	U. S. Senator Sherrod Brown	He talks about the NSA surveillance programs. He says he voted against the Patriot Act the first time around 10 years ago because he felt it gave the President too much power and believes it can allow those in power to overreach. He says he doesn't know if the Obama Administration has done that to this point but wants to know more about what is happening.	5:00
6/23/13	Ohio ACLU Associate Director Gary Daniels	He talks about NSA surveillance. The ACLU has filed suit against the federal government over what it says is unauthorized surveillance. He says the burden needs to be on the government to explain why the surveillance is needed—not that citizens need to explain why they shouldn't be monitored. He also talked about a proposal at the Statehouse that would allow high school students to take religious classes at other schools outside of class and receive academic credit in their high school. He opposes that, saying students could be taught something in direct opposition to something they may be taught in a science class.	6:00

6/23/13	Political strategists Dale Butland (Democrat) and Bob Clegg (Republican)	They discuss political issues, including whether the Bush or Obama administrations were worse on civil liberty violations, on whether the new abortion bill is reasonable, on whether Medicaid expansion could still be put into Ohio's state budget, and on whether Senate Democrats should use the "nuclear option" to get Richard Cordray appointed as head of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau	4:00
6/30/13	State Representative Ron Amstutz, chairman of the House Finance Committee	He speaks in favor of tax changes coming to Ohio. He defends the changes, which include a rollback of the personal income tax and slight increase in the state sales tax, and changes to businesses taxes. Critics say the changes benefit the wealthy and do almost nothing for the poor and middle class. Amstutz says it makes sense because the wealthier people pay the most in taxes and should get the biggest relief from them.	5:00
6/30/13	State Senator Eric Kearney, Senate Minority Leader	He speaks against changes coming to Ohio's taxes. He says a sales tax increase is regressive and hurts the poor disproportionately more than the wealthy. And he says the income tax return provides almost no additional money to lower and middle class wage earners, especially when taking into account the likely increase in local taxes (schools and municipality) they're likely to pay because of reductions in state allocations.	5:00

4/7/13	Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel	He talks about his defeat in the U. S. Senate race last year. 5/5/13	Hult Prize Founder and C. E. O. Amhed Ashkar	He's speaking in Columbus about an annual contest connected to the Clinton Global Initiative. Teams from around the world are competing for a $1-million prize, working to solve the world's toughest social challenges. He gave an example of one team working to solve global hunger problems by raising crickets (the insects) which are already eaten by a large percentage of people in the world. It can be prepared in a number of ways, including as a paste-like substance that can be used as a base for many types of foods.	11:00
5/26/13	Ohio Hotel and Lodging Association Executive Director Matt MacLaren	He discusses tax issues involving online companies such as Expedia and Travelocity, saying they pay a lower tax rate than the hotels must charge and keep the difference as a service fee or "tax recovery fee." He says that shortchanges Ohio's tourism industry—entities such as Experience Columbus, which receive lodging taxes from hotels. He says legislation at the Statehouse would even the playing field. He says he doesn't believe that would cost consumers more because that money is being retained anyway by those online companies. He also says the travel and tourism industry in Ohio is on the upswing from the recession a few years ago.	9:00
5/26/13	Political strategists Bob Clegg (Republican) and Dale Butland (Democrat)	They discuss Ohio politics, including how big a deal the IRS targeting scandal is, whether the Justice Department seizing of AP phone records is unconstitutional or a matter of national security, whether the Benghazi scandal is over or not, whether former Ohio attorney general Richard Cordray will be confirmed in Washington as head of the Consumer Protection Bureau, and whether Governor Kasich should get any credit for Honda's new sports car line that will be built in Ohio	5:00

6/16/13	Political strategists Sam Gresham (Democrat) and Terry Casey (Republican)	They discussed whether transparency concerns will continue regarding JobsOhio, on whether recent gaffes played the major role in Gordon Gee stepping down as OSU President, on whether Right To Work will remain a viable political issue in Ohio over the next year, on whether Republicans are taking a risk with women voters over their efforts to take funding away from Planned Parenthood, on whether NSA surveillance is out of line, on whether Governor Kasich was right when he said Ronald Reagan would support Medicaid expansion,	5:00
6/30/13	State Representative Ron Amstutz, chairman of the House Finance Committee	He speaks in favor of tax changes coming to Ohio. 4/28/13	Ohio AAA Public Relations Manager Kimberly Schwinde	She talks about rising gas prices and says 62% of Ohioans report they've altered their lifestyle because of high prices. 46% of Ohio drivers say prices are too high at $3 per gallon, while 61% say they feel that way about $3.50 and 90% say $4 is too high. She also talks about the reason for volatile prices and what can causes them to spike.	8:00
5/26/13	Ohio Division of Watercraft Enforcement Officer Ryan Trout	He offers tips on safe boating	11:00
6/2/13	Laurie Johnson with the National Resources Defense Council	She discusses her perspective on what she says are the costs of climate change. She says a new study shows tax dollars are increasingly paying for damages caused by disasters such as tornadoes, hurricanes, droughts and wildfires, rather than insurance companies. She says in 2012 insurance companies covered only $33-billion of the $139-billion in losses, with the government picking up the rest. She said it underscores the importance of reducing emissions and pollution because she says climate change is behind the increase in natural disasters.	19:00

4/7/13	Amethyst Co-Founder and C.E.O. Jenny O'Keefe	Her organization provides long-term help for drug-addicted and often homeless women. 4/7/13	Dr. Eric Atkins with the Ohio State University Medical Center	He talks about energy drinks and concerns that teens are getting too much caffeine. Such drinks are not regulated by the FDA.	5:00

4/7/13	Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel	He talks about his defeat in the U. S. Senate race last year. He says it's not the first race he's lost and he doesn't dwell on it, instead focusing on his job as treasurer. But he does say he and other conservatives need to spend more time relaying their message to African-Americans and other minorities in urban areas. He says he has significantly cut the budget in his office and plans to run for re-election that position next year. Mandel also discussed his opposition to the Governor's desire to expand Medicaid and raise the severance tax on oil and gas producers in Ohio.	7:00
4/14/13	Central Ohio congressional members Joyce Beatty (Democrat) and Steve Stivers (Republican)	They talk about the divisions between the two parties on health care, taxes and sequestration. Stivers acknowledges that additional revenue is needed, Beatty says Americans want a balances budget but not at a cost to middle and low-income folks.	9:00
4/14/13	U. S. Healthworks Regional Medical Director Dr. Thomas Hadley	His company has clinics in Columbus and other Ohio cities. He talks about spring allergies—what causes them and how to deal with them.	13:00
4/21/13	Ohio House Finance Committee Chairman State Representative Ron Amstutz	He talks about the leadership decision to remove Medicaid expansion from the budget and to work separately on that issue to reform it. He says there are too many uncertainties to approve it without further study.	9:00
4/21/13	March of Dimes National "Mom" Ambassador Chris Centofanti, from Mason, Ohio	She talks about the importance of getting involved in upcoming walkathons to raise money in an effort to reduce the incidence of premature births.	9:00
4/21/13	Tom Zowastowski, a Portage County tea party leader who is running for chairman of the Ohio Republican Party	He says the party is losing touch with its conservative base, with Governor Kasich wanting to expand Medicaid, Senator Rob Portman supporting gay marriage, and Matt Borges running for chairman of the party with his background as former lobbyist for Equality Ohio—a gay right advocacy group.	7:00
4/21/13	Ohio Right to Life president Mike Gonidakis and NARAL Pro Choice Ohio Executive Director Kelly Copeland	They debate Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine's recent letter to the Obama Administration asking that private companies be given the choice to opt out of providing contraception in health care plans. DeWine calls it a religious liberty issue and Gonidakis says he agrees. Copeland says it is a women's health issue.	8:00

4/21/13	Political strategists Sam Gresham (Democrat) and Bob Clegg (Republican)	They quick opinions on a number of state and national political issues. They discuss whether the Tea Party is creating dissention within the Republican Party, whether Attorney General Mike DeWine is out of line or not in wanting the federal government to allow private companies to be able to opt out of providing insurance coverage for contraceptives, on whether President Obama can get gun control measures approved, on whether U-S Senator Rob Portman will face a primary challenge now that he supports same sex marriage, on whether Governor Kasich is losing control of his budget priorities among his own party, on whether Hillary Clinton is a lock for the presidency in 2016	5:00
4/28/13	Newly elected Ohio Republican Party Chairman Mat Borges	He says he's not concerned about unhappy Republicans who are making plans to challenge some GOP members, including Governor Kasich, because of some issues they disagree with (Medicaid expansion, for example). Borges says the governor is a dynamic leader who has stopped the bleeding of jobs and balanced the budget without raising taxes. He says disagreements over state budget issues is nothing new and there's a long way to go and time for differences to be worked out.	7:00
4/28/13	Former Ohio Democratic Party Chairman David Leland	He says Democrats were in a similar position in 2010 that Republicans now enjoy—holding the majority of statewide offices and that the political landscape can change quickly in Ohio. He says failure to expand Medicaid in Ohio would be a big issue in the state and he says it is being hijacked by a small group of "Republican right-wingers" who are controlling the caucus.	6:00
4/28/13	Dr. Stephen Sinatra, a cardiologist and author of the book "The Great Cholesterol Myth"	He says cholesterol is a natural substance in the body and not the perpetrator in heart disease. He says higher cholesterol levels protect people from bacterial, viral and gastro-intestinal infections. He says sugar is the real culprit, which raises blood glucose levels and leads to inflammation within the body. He says people are eating low-fat foods, thinking they are healthy, when those foods actually replace the fat with sugar.	18:00

5/5/13	State Senator Kevin Bacon	He discusses Medicaid expansion, saying the House has set the course by refusing to put expansion in the federal budget so the Senate is moving forward on its budget work without the expansion, which Governor Kasich wants. Bacon says both chambers are studying the issue and will work jointly to come up with a solution to reform Medicaid that could include more Ohioans in the program.	6:00
5/5/13	Columbus Dispatch reporter Jim Siegel	He discusses Medicaid expansion and why Republicans in the state legislature don't support it. He says they see it as a program that won't help people become self-sufficient, which is what they are looking at in efforts to reform the health program.	4:00
5/12/13	Mount Carmel Health System C. E. O. Claus Von Zychlin	He talks about his support of expanding Medicaid. He says a lack of access to health care among the poor is a major obstacle preventing them from ever advancing. He says the issue should not be political—it is simply the right thing to do. He says hospitals are getting less money through Medicare and some of that being channeled back in through Medicaid expansion, which he says is important for Ohio to sign onto along with other states.	9:00
5/12/13	Political strategists Dale Butland (Democrat) and Terry Casey (Republican)	They briefly discuss various political issues, including how bad the Columbus City Schools attendance scandal is, whether a Right To Work measure (to allow workers to opt out of union dues and membership) will be on the statewide ballot in November, why Ohio Republican Senator Rob Portman's favorability rating is falling, Ohio Democratic Senator Sherrod Brown's charge that President Obama is too close to Wall Street, whether new Ohio GOP Chair Matt Borges can bring the Tea Party back into the Republican Party fold, and whether the hospital lobbyists can convince lawmakers to expand Medicaid,	5:00
5/19/13	State Senator Charleta Tavares	She talks about her support of expanding Medicaid expansion and talked about the need even just for those with mental illness—one in five Americans live with a mental disorder.	6:00

5/19/13	Political strategists Sam Gresham (Democrat) and Bob Clegg (Republican)	They discuss various Ohio political issues including whether the Internet sales tax is inevitable and whether it's good, on whether a measure to legalize marijuana will be on the November ballot in Ohio, on whether entertainment districts should be exempt from open container laws—the Arena District in Columbus, for example, on whether Medicaid expansion would pass if it was put to a statewide vote, and on whether reports of the Republican Party struggling due to gun rights and immigration are over-rated	5:00
6/2/13	Incoming Ohio House Minority Leader, State Representative Tracy Maxwell-herd	She says she believes there are enough Republicans in the House to expand Medicaid but House Speaker Bill Batchelder will not bring it to a vote, preferring instead to reform the plan before putting it up for a vote.	9:00
6/9/13	Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services Director Orman Hall	He talks about the escalating problem of prescription drug abuse in Ohio and the newly-opened Southern Ohio Drug Treatment Center in Jackson.	15:00
6/9/13	Milliman Inc. Actuary Jim O'Connor	He says for people who do not qualify for a federal subsidy who purchase individual insurance they could see a substantial cost increase. He says employer-provided insurance is likely to go up next year the usual 6% plus another 3-4% beyond that.	10:00
6/9/13	Nationwide Children's Hospital Allergist Dr. Roger Friedman	He discusses types of spring allergies and treatments.	6:00
6/9/13	Megan Caulfield With Capital Area Humane Society	She gives advice for preventing dog bites	3:00
6/16/13	Political strategists Sam Gresham (Democrat) and Terry Casey (Republican)	They discussed whether transparency concerns will continue regarding JobsOhio, on whether recent gaffes played the major role in Gordon Gee stepping down as OSU President, on whether Right To Work will remain a viable political issue in Ohio over the next year, on whether Republicans are taking a risk with women voters over their efforts to take funding away from Planned Parenthood, on whether NSA surveillance is out of line, on whether Governor Kasich was right when he said Ronald Reagan would support Medicaid expansion,	5:00
6/16/13	Directions for Youth and Families C.E.O. Duane Casares	He talks about the dangers of normalizing dysfunction.	13:00

6/23/13	Executive Director of Ohio Right to Life Mike Gonidakis and NARAL Pro-Choice Ohio Executive Director Jamie Miracle	They discuss a new proposal at the Statehouse that would require women seeking an abortion to get an ultrasound and to be told by a doctor that an abortion will increase her risk of developing breast cancer and to explain the "relevant features" of the fetus, and to extend the waiting period for an abortion from 24 to 48 hours. Miracle says the men introducing and trying to pass these laws are out of touch with Ohioans and woman. Gonidakis says his group has not taken a position on the bill but says efforts to make it clear to the woman that she is carrying a life is a good thing.	6:00
6/23/13	Nurse Practitioner Leslie Burgie	She discusses keeping kids healthy at summer camp—simple tips about packing supplies and preventing illness.	4:00
6/23/13	Political strategists Dale Butland (Democrat) and Bob Clegg (Republican)	They discuss political issues, including whether the Bush or Obama administrations were worse on civil liberty violations, on whether the new abortion bill is reasonable, on whether Medicaid expansion could still be put into Ohio's state budget, and on whether Senate Democrats should use the "nuclear option" to get Richard Cordray appointed as head of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau	4:00

He gave an example of one team working to solve global hunger problems by raising crickets (the insects) which are already eaten by a large percentage of people in the world. It can be prepared in a number of ways, including as a paste-like substance that can be used as a base for many types of foods.	11:00
6/23/13	Donna Brown, Walk Coordinator for the American Council of the Blind's 5th Annual ACB Walk	This walk takes place in July. 4/14/13	Directions for Youth and Families C.E.O. Duane Casares	He talks about sex education--the importance of telling your young kids some basic information. He says young kids don't need details and don't understand it well anyway but it's important for parents to own the issue so kids don't get misinformation from other kids. He says it also helps build trust and values in your child.	15:00
4/21/13	Directions for Youth and Families C.E.O. Duane Casares	He talks about steering small children away from the Boston Marathon bombing reports on television. He says it can be disruptive and upsetting to kids, especially given the nature of the event—a bombing while people are running. And he says very small kids may think it's an ongoing situation if it replays over and over on television. He also talks about the importance of communicating with kids to make sure they know they are safe in times like this.	14:00

He says the "effective" unemployment rate for 18-29 year olds is 16.1% (actual rate 11.1%), and even higher for minorities. He says only 30% of them hold jobs that they believe are career-related. He says overspending in Washington is partly to blame—that the deficit is damaging the economy. He says gays are, on average, about 16 years old when they make known their sexuality, whereas in the 1980s the average age was 23. He says teens struggling with this issue face many risks. He says fear of acceptance or actual rejection by families is a huge issue. He says some reports indicate 20-40% of the homeless youth are gay or lesbian. And they have a suicide rate three times that of heterosexual youth.	15:00
