5. Government

Program Title	Time	Date	Source	Length	Description
News Watch	17:34:00	1/7/2013	Live	27 sec	Mattoon residents who have already opted out of the electrical aggregation program may have to do it again. Homefield Energy says an error occurred causing wrong account numbers to be sent out to residents.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/7/2013	Live	27 sec	Douglas County mine causes concern for residents near Murdock. The mine has operated for 20 years and the residents are worried about potential pollution.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/7/2013	Live	22 sec	The governor's office needs help to nominate people for the 4th annual volunteer award. Nominations are due by Feb. 15th and can found on the serve Illinois commission website.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/8/2013	Live	22 sec	Illinois State Police and 300 other law inforcements will begin inforcing new laws regarding cell phones on January 1st.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/8/2013	Live	22 sec	Illinois Department of Public Health says that almost 150 people have been admitted to intensive care units with the flu this season and six have died. Numbers are likely to rise.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/9/2013	Live	1 min	Michael Madigan addressed newly-sworn in House members earlier today at th University of Illinois Springfield. The issue he discussed was "terribly cntentious" because any reform would be a change to what workers have been promised. The change would ensure Illinois with sound financial footing. The new Illinois General assembly had to start fresh today because a decision wasn't made before the lame duck session.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/9/2013	Live	21 sec	Illinois legislators have passed a bill to giving temporary licenses to immigrants who prove they've lived in Illinois for at least a year and have passed a driver's test.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/9/2013	Live	21 sec	A representative from the Illinois Attorney General's office answers Coles County's questions about consumer scam at the LifeSpan Center in Charleston.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/9/2013	Live	16 sec	Water bills rise $2.00 per month in Shelbyville
News Watch	17:34:00	1/9/2013	Live	32 sec	Social Security recipients urged to switch to electronic payments to help cut the cost of mailing the checks. Those who fail to switch will still receive a check after March 1st.

News Watch	17:34:00	1/10/2013	Live	29 sec	AARP officials say this year's fast-spreading flu virus presents serious health risks for the elderly. They urge Illinois residents to check on older family members.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/10/2013	Live	24 sec	This year's Eagle Day at Lake Shelbyville will be on Saturday February 16th at the visitor's center. Event begins at 11:00 and tickets are required for the prey demonstration.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/10/2013	Live	23 sec	New state law requires all licensed daycare centers to check radon levels. The law took effect the first of this year.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/11/2013	Live	27 sec	Officials say that Illinois Department of Employment Security Office has to close seven offices and cut 192 positions. One of these offices is located in Mattoon. Federal budget reductions is to blame for the close.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/14/2013	Live	26 sec	The Chicago Bar Association is offered a free hotline for legal advice with more than 300 pre-screened lawyers on hand to answer any questions.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/14/2013	Live	20 sec	Congressman John Shimkus is collecting valentines to be distributed to veterans and those currently serving in the military. Valentines can be mailed locally or dropped by the Congressman's offices in Effingham.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/15/2013	Live	3 min 26 sec	A law that started January 1st will have an effect on hosts of house parties. Host of house parties in the Charleston area will be charged with a Class A misdemeanor for underage drinking. If the underage drinking results in bodily harm or death then the host will be charged with a Class 4 felony.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/15/2013	Live	26 sec	State Representative Brad Halbrook was sworn in to represent 110th House District that includes Coles, Cumberland, Clark, Edgar, Crawford and Lawrence Counties. Representative Halbrook plans to open district offices in Charleston and Robinson.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/15/2013	Live	24 sec	A group of nationally recognized wall artists, The Walldogs, chose Marshall, Illinois to be a recipient of a wall mural on the side of the Genealogical Library.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/16/2013	Live	48 sec	Illinois is he only state that does not allow concealed carry in some form. Current background checks are done on everyone who tries to purchase a firearm in the state and this, along with new changes since the Conneticut shooting, is apparently affecting gun distributors and customers.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/17/2013	Live	2 min 33 sec	Kelsey Jones, a student from WIU, is part of a group known as unit at Western. This group supports all members of the gay rights community. The group wants the state of Illinois to legalize gay marriage. The issue is being brought to many people's attention and is being considered by legislation. Springfield diocese of the Catholic church has come out strongly against it.

News Watch	17:34:00	1/17/2013	Live	1 min 2 sec	U.S. Representative John Shimkus discusses his views on keeping schools safe but passing federal gun laws may not be the answer. Shimkus is a strong supporter of the 2nd Amendment for numerous reasons. The fate of the president's gun plan could ultimately hing on a handful of moderate Democratic senators.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/18/2013	Live	43 sec	Representative John Shimkus is asking for participation in his Valentines for Heroes program. The Valentines will go to soldier at home or those in active duty. Valentines will be accepted at Shimkus' district offices until February 8th.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/21/2013	Live	29 sec	Supporters of gun ownership rights rallied at state's capitol on Saturday. The group Guns Across America says the rally was held to show lawmakers how the group opposes new gun control laws. President Obama is pressing Congress to pass universal background checks and bans on military-style assualt weapons.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/21/2013	Live	19 sec	General maintenance work will be done to the Mattoon railroad crossing located at the corner of 31st Street and Edgar Avenue. The crossing will be closed until further notice.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/22/2013	Live	27 sec	Illinois' Comptroller Republican Judy Baar Topinka says Illinois is running out of money for child welfare, workers' conpensation, and services for elderly and disabled. Topinka says lawmakers need to "end the denial" and deal with the crisis before it jeopardizes critical services residents need.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/22/2013	Live	29 sec	Illinois Department of Natural Resources plan to enforce new rules starting in July to help generate 30 million dollars by charging six dollars to float down a river in an inner tube. Canoe and kayak paddlers will see state fees triple and off-highway vehicles will need a state sticker.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/22/2013	Live	23 sec	Former Governor George Ryan could be released from federal prison through a work release program on January 30th. Ryan is serving a 6 1/2-year sentence in Terre Haute for a 2006 corruption conviction.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/22/2013	Live	26 sec	Governor Pat Quinn recongizes Eastern Illinois University this morning as the recipient of the Governor's Award for Excellence in Education for the Fall of 2012. EIU was chosen because of their verterans' services.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/24/2013	Live	25 sec	Coles County Memorial Airport will be one of 19 airports in Illinois to receive nearly two hundred thousand dollars from the state for resurfacing work and a frontage road. Airport manager Andrew Fearn says it will be at least a year before project is started.

News Watch	17:34:00	1/24/2013	Live	26 sec	Sue McLaughlin was hired to serve as City Administrator in Lincoln. McLaughlin's contract with Mattoon was terminated without cause after she prosped to sell nearly five acres of land at Lake Mattoon to her fiancee, what critics believed was an unfair price.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/25/2013	Live	22 sec	Marshall will receive grant funding to make improvements to update and reprint a walking and driving tour blooklet of historic places. The town will receive up to $2000.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/28/2013	Live	20 sec	Illinois officials say hunters in state harvested about 180-thousand deer during the 2012-2013 seasons. Two of the top Illinois counties for deer harvesting were Fulton and Pike counties.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/28/2013	Live	44 sec	Senator Dick Durbin is co-sponoring two gun control measures. One called Assault Weapons Ban of 2013 calls for banning some assault weapons and hgh capacity ammunition magazines. Durbin says the is in response to recent Connecticut mass shooting. The other is Stop Illegal Trafficking Act of 2013. This act will give law inforcement the tools they need to stop people from buying guns for those who cannot legally buy them
News Watch	17:34:00	1/29/2013	Live	22 sec	State Representative Brad Halbrook has opened two new district offices. His Charleston office will be open 9-5 Monday, Wednesday, Friday. At the Robinson location, 9-5 on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/30/2013	Live	30 sec	Former Illinois governor George Ryan reported to a halfway house in Chicago after being released from federal prison in Terre Haute this morning. Ryan qualified for early release 5 months before his term officially ended. Rob Blagojevich is the only other former Illinois governor behind bars.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/30/2013	Live	23 sec	Illinois House of Representatives is back in session promising a continuing struggle over how to close a 96-billion dollar funding gap in the state's pension system. The House and Senate will meet next week for Pat Quinn's State of the State address.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/30/2013	Live	32 sec	20 Illinois soldiers will be training at Camp Atterbury, Indiana and in Poland before deploying with Plish Land Forces. This allows the soldiers to train side-by-side with their Polish counterparts before being deployed to Afghanistan for six months.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/4/2013	Live	22 sec	Low income students under the age of 18 will be able to apply to receive summer food assistance. The Illinois State Board of Education believes this will help fill the nutritional gap between the last day of one school year to the first of the next.

News Watch	17:34:00	2/5/2013	Live	36 sec	Walnut Point and Lincoln Trail state parks will no longer be taking reservations because they only have one full-time staff member between them. The Illinois Department of Natural Resources has lost hundreds of employees over the last decade due to budget cuts.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/5/2013	Live	27 sec	A recent survey was sent out with the water bills for the city of Shelbyville. The survey was issued to ask residents if they believe that city funds should be used to repair the Chautauqua auditorium. The majority of residents said no.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/5/2013	Live	17 sec	Congressman John Shimkus plans to meet with voters in Coles County next week on February 11th at the Mattoon City Council starting at 2:30.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/6/2013	Live	26 sec	Governor Quinn says it's time for Illinois to allow gay marriage. He praised senators who moved a bill out of committee earlier this week and says it's time to pass the bill so that Illinois can achieve "full equality."
News Watch	17:34:00	2/7/2013	Live	1 min 40 sec	A proposal to raise minimum wage came up in the state Senate last year but wasn't called for a floor vote. Small businesses in Charleston do not believe that an increase in minimum wage is necessarily a good idea. Some say with this economy it is hard to hire part time employees. Governor Quinn believes rasing minimum wage will be good for the economy and will help create jobs.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/7/2013	Live	33 sec	The Coles County board is set to vote on whether to oppose an Ameren transmission line that will run right through Coles County. Many Coles County residents have voiced their concerns about losing farmland in the process. The line will not provide much benefit to the community and could have a negative economic impact.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/8/2013	Live	30 sec	The Lincoln Log Cabin State Historic Site in Lerna is hosting an open house to celebrate Abe Lincoln's birthday.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/8/2013	Live	2 min 8 sec	Shelbyville is one of few towns chosen to receive grants aimed at improving transportation related-construction. The city engineer, Alan Spesard says he is very excited to spearhead this restoration plan since he has personally been involved since 2008. This is just one of six projects planned for Shelbyville.
at issue 2/8/13	18:00	2/8/2013	tape	26:46:00	this program is a discussion about the illinois budget and the pension crisis
at issue 2/8/13	0:00	2/9/2013	tape	26:46:00	this program is a discussion about the illinois budget and the pension crisis
at issue 2/8/13	12:00	2/11/2013	tape	26:46:00	this program is a discussion about the illinois budget and the pension crisis

News Watch	17:34:00	2/11/2013	Live	2 min 16 sec	Many in the Catholic community are eager to see what change will come of the resignition of Pope Benedict. Catholic Cameron Murray says the addition of a new pope is an opportunity for change. The Vatican has stressed that there is no medical condition that prompted benedict's decision to resign. The Vatican is convinced that there will be a new pope by easter.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/11/2013	Live	29 sec	The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is hosting their 2nd annual Eagle Day Saturday at Lake Shelbyville. The Illinois Raptor Center will present two Birds of Prey programs. There is no cost to attend.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/13/2013	Live	47 sec	Lieutenant Governor Sheila Simon has announced potential education reforms that coud make college more affordable to Illinois residents. One proposal would allow students to simultaneously enroll in community colleges and universities. Simon is also suggesting income tax waviers for students who earn higher education degrees in Illinois and choose to stay in the state upon graduation. Simon says she will not run for re-election. Her office says she wants to serve the people of Illinois in a role where she can have an even greater impact.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/14/2013	Live	21 sec	The Illinois Senate has voted to legalize gay marriage, advancing a proposal that would make the state the 10th state iin the nation allowing same-sex couples to wed. The bill now moves to the House, where Democrats also hold a majority. Governor Quinn says he will sign the bill if the House approves it.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/14/2013	Live	39 sec	Illinois Governor Pat Quinn says he's not taking it personally that Lieutenant Governor Sheila Simon won't seek re-election with him next year. Simon announced Wednesday her future plans include running for public office but she hasn't decided which one yet. Governor Quinn says he won't try to persuade Simon to stay because she has other ambitions.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/14/2013	Live	28 sec	Chief Judge Dan Flannell oversees Champaign, Dewitt, Douglas, Macon, Moultrie and Piatt counties circuit courts and he says they aren't ready to join other Illinois courts that use recording equipment in the courtroom. Flannell has set up a committee to monitor the program elsewhere and report back to him.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/14/2013	Live	25 sec	Congressman John Shimkus announced Wednesday the Assistance to Firefighters Grant Program will award the Oakland Fire Department more than one-hundred 30 thousand dollars for both Oakland and the Ashmore Fire Protection District.

News Watch	17:34:00	2/15/2013	Live	2 min 42 sec	The state senate passed a gay marriage bill Thursday with a vote of 34 to 21. One Eastern Illinois Student Mario McCart talks about what the new bill for same sex marriage means to him. He believes that his generation is more open minded and that he would be more than thrilled if the bill was sent on. McCart isn't concerned with how the church looks at marriage, he is more concerned with the legal stance and rights that should be given to the gay community. Coles County Clerk Sue Rennels says her office's policy on the new legislation will follow the state constitution no matter what and won't turn anyone away.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/15/2013	Live	27 sec	The Champaign County League of Women Voters will host a forum tonight introducing two Democratic mayoral canididates and two city clerk candidates. Each candidate will have 30 minutes to introduce themselves and present their campaign ideas. The audience will have a chance to ask questions.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/15/2013	Live	29 sec	The Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity is giving 62 million dollars to 55 communities to use on diaster plans. Some cities chosen are Arcola, Casey and Marshall. The department says the money is part of the Ike Disaster Recovery Planning Program for communities that plan to prevent damage and aid recovery in future disasters.
News Watch	18:00:00	2/15/2013	Live	24 sec	The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is hosting their 2nd annual Eagle Day tomorrow at Lake Shelbyville. The Illinois Raptor Center will present two Birds of Prey programs. There is no cost to attend.
News Watch	0:00:00	2/18/2013	Live	22 sec	Illinois Attorney General Lisa Madigan plans to address the ongoing foreclosure crisis and provide equal access to the justice system. The announcement will be made tomorrow at 2:15 in the faculty conference room on the 2nd floor of University of Illinois' College of Law.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/18/2013	Live	2 min 55 sec	A one-hundred-year-old building in Charleston is being auctioned off. Many Charleston residents speak about the auction of yet another building on the city's square. Many said it would be a shame to see another law office move into the building since that does not draw the general population to that area. One man who is interested in buying the building hopes to see it turned into some type of retail business. Wednesday will determine the fate of the building with the auction starting at nine in city hall.

News Watch	17:34:00	2/18/2013	Live	33 sec	The Chautauqua auditorium in Shelbyville is in need of repairs. City officials sent a survey in the water bill of two-thousand residents. Most residents said no to using city funds to repair the building. A meeting is scheduled for tomorrow evening to discuss the results of the survey and what actions need to be taken.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/18/2013	Live	29 sec	The Illinois Earned Income Tax Credit, aslon know as the EITC, provides low income families with some relief. Families earning less than 50 thousand dollars annually and individuals earning less than 25 thousand may qualify for free tax assistance and instructions on how to apply for relief at several locations across the state. Governor Pat Quinn wants taxpayers to take advantage of this.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/18/2013	Live	2 min 19 sec	Visitors to Lake Shelbyville Visitor's Center had a chance to see our nation's symbol up close and personal today at Eagle Day. This year Eagle Day featured two special guests, Knny and Phoenix. These two eagles came from the Illinois Raptor Center. Shelbyville Visitors Center plans to continue Eagle Day. The program is considered a great way to help the public better understand how to observe and identify animals in their natural habitats.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/19/2013	Live	27 sec	Crawford County sheriff Todd Liston says plans are in the works to increase security at the county courthouse. Liston says his department is working on a budget that will allow them to purchase door alarms and a metal detector. Once the equipment is installed an officer will be stationed at the metal detector all day. Liston will meet with county officials next month to solve funding for the project.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/20/2013	Live	32 sec	This morning the building located on Charleston's town square went up for sale. The city spent almost four years restoring this building that formerly housed Teen Reach, but there was no winning bid. Charleston city clerk Deborah Muller says the price did not meet the city's required amount.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/20/2013	Live	27 sec	Shelbyville City Council met on Wednesday to discuss the future of the city-owned Chautauqua Auditorium with the public. No decision was made on the future of this historic building. The city council will meet again Monday.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/25/2013	Live	26 sec	The Illinois Department of Transportation has reduced the speed limit along Illinois Route 121 in Sullivan to 30 miles per hour. I-DOT officials say they were asked by the city of Sullivan to reduce the speed because they received complaints the current speed limit was too fast.

News Watch	17:34:00	2/26/2013	Live	21 sec	The Illinois State Fair Museum Foundation is looking to recognize ten people as Illinoisans of the Day at this year's state fair. The program honors citizens who make a difference in their communities while promoting the state's spirit.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/26/2013	Live	22 sec	An Illinois House committee is expected to vote anytime on a measur allowing same-sex couples to marry. The Senate approved the measure earlier this month. If passed by the committee there's no word on when it would be called for a full house vote. A House O-K would send the matter to Governor Pat Quinn, who says he'll sign it.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/26/2013	Live	25 sec	The union that represents about 800 building and food-service workers at the U of I in Urbana-Champaign says its members could strike soon if they don't get a new contract. Union and university officials are scheduled to meet in a negotiating session today.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/27/2013	Live	21 sec	The city of Charleston has spend 4 years restoring a building located on 7th street on the town square. Two weeks ago it failed to sale at aution. City clerk Deborah Muller says the city council will discuss what to do with the building at its next meeting set for March 5th.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/27/2013	Live	20 sec	The House Executive Committee voted 6-5 late Tuesday to move a measure lifting the state's ban on same-sex marriage to the floor. The bill has already passed in the state Senate. If the house ok's this bill in the floor vote it would head to Governor Pat Quinn who sasy he'll sign it.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/27/2013	Live	27 sec	The House approved an amendment to its concealed carry bill after a 7-hour debate last night. Harrisburg democrat Brandon Phelp's amendment passed sixty-seven to forty-eight. Even though this small measure passed in the house the bill still has a long road until being put into law. Illinois has until June to pass concealed carry legislation.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/27/2013	Live	28 sec	The Annual Fish Habitat Improvement project at Lake Shelbyville is scheduled for Saturday March 9th. 4-hundred twelve Christmas trees were donated to create artificial fish attractors. Volunteers will load the trees on their boats and drop them in selected spots in the lake to provide the fish with breeding areas.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/28/2013	Live	32 sec	Officials with the Illinois Department of Employment Security say seven offices, including the office in Mattoon, will close because of mounting federal budget reductions. IDES officials say staff will continue to work in the locations temorarily until the layoff is complete. the 192 workers are expected to have the opportunity to fill open positions elsewhere in state government.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/1/2013	Live	29 sec	The illinois House approved a measure prohibiting hand-held use of a cell phone while driving. The 64-46 vote is enough to move the bill to the state senate. If the bill becomes law, police could stop anyone holding a cell phone while they're driving.
at issue 3/1/13	18:00	3/1/2013	tape	26:46:00	This program was a discussion with ROE 11 Superintendent about school budget cuts and the effects on regional schools.
at issue 3/1/13	0:00	3/2/2013	tape	26:46:00	This program was a discussion with ROE 11 Superintendent about school budget cuts and the effects on regional schools.
at issue 3/1/13	12:00	3/4/2013	tape	26:46:00	This program was a discussion with ROE 11 Superintendent about school budget cuts and the effects on regional schools.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/4/2013	Live	2 min 33 sec	Lieutenant Brad Oyer of the Charleston Police Department says the goal of Bill H-B-12-47 is safety. If this bill passes police can ticket any driver holding a cell phone, except in emergency situations. Some opponents of the bill say it's unfair to those who can't afford high-tech phones. But multiple Eastern Illinois University students say buying a hands-free headset is just a small price to pay. If the State Senate approves this bill it'll move to the governor.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/4/2013	Live	23 sec	Officials say Crawford County Sheriff's Department inplemented new security measures for the courthouse today. The say all entrances will be closed from now on except for the handicap entrance. Metal detectors are also being used at the entrancefor all visitors and staff to pass through.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/4/2013	Live	28 sec	The Shelbyville city council will meet tonight to discuss the future of the city-owned Chautauqua Auditorium with the public. A survey was sent to Shelbyville residents in their water bills asking if they wanted to pay for the restoration of the auditorium with city funds and the answer was no. Restoring the building will cost 1.8 million dollars.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/4/2013	Live	20 sec	Red Cross has launched its official Tornado App, which gives smart phones like iPhone and Android real time information during a severe weather event. The app includes a high pitched siren that alerts people when a National Weather Service tornado warning has been issued.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/5/2013	Live	27 sec	The Charleston City Council is looking to decide the fate of a building in their downtown area. The city has spent four years restoring this building that sits on the square. Since it failed to sell at auction, the council must decide the building's future tonight.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/5/2013	Live	24 sec	Mattoon is set to receive close to 30 thousand dollars collected from October to January from gambling machines. Tonight, the city council will discuss using the money to maintain city property, demolishing buildings, purchasing equipment, and helping to fund the fire and police departments.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/5/2013	Live	16 sec	Mattoon residents will soon have the chance to meet the candidates running for city council. The candidate forun is scheduled for March 26th at Williams Elementary School. Four commissioner seats are up for grabs this election.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/5/2013	Live	22 sec	The Shelbyville City Council has voted to tear down the Chautauqua Aditorium. The council will be taking bids from demolition companies to tear the long standing building down. It may take more than a few months for the city to accept a bid.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/6/2013	Live	1 min 4 sec	Governor Pat Quinn proposed his budget for the next fiscal year today. Quinn says he wants to cut education by four hundred million dollard to deal with the state's pension problem. Illinois Federation of Teachers President Dan Motgomery says teachers didnt create the pension funding issue and students shouldn't have to suffer. Quinn says cuts are necessary because the lawmaker's haven't acted to fix the state's pension problem, which is the worst in the nation. Quinn says we must enact fundemental pension reform and he's perserving some areas, like early childhood education and some college scholarships.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/6/2013	Live	35 sec	Right now Walnut Point State Park only has one employee, a superintendent which it shares with Lincoln Trail State Park. All campground facilities are still open. Park Superintendent Tom Hintz says five employees recently retired and the park has yet to make plans to replace them. This Saturday, a University of Illinois fraternity plans to send 2 hundred volunteers to help clean up the grounds.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/6/2013	Live	25 sec	A few weeks ago the building on the Charleston town square failed to sale at 44-thousand dollars. Tuesday night the city priced the property at 60-thousand dollars. City council member Larry Rennels predicts it will house a business on the ground floor and residential apartments on the second.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/7/2013	Live	52 sec	Pat Quinn says while he's cutting funding to education, he's proposing more money for veterans. Quinn says veteran care is an area Illinois can't afford to cut. He told lawmakers yesterday the budget for the next fiscal year includes increased funding for Illinois veterans' homes. Quinn says the budget will include funding for mental healthcare for veterans and the increase will also cover higher staffing requirements outlined in the Illinois Nursing Home Care Act.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/7/2013	Live	22 sec	A house committee has approved a medical marijuana bill. It would allow adults with cancer, multiple sclerosis, HIV or other illnesses to get marijuana to ease their pain. The proposal now moves to the full House for consideration.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/7/2013	Live	1 min 25 sec	Residents say the Chautauqua Auditorium in Shelbyville has been a major part of the town's history. While a preservation committee did come up with one hundred thousand dollars for rennovations, the city also had to kick in matching funds. After much discussion this week, the city council decided not to contribute to the project. One resident Jamie Newell commented on the building demolation and said it's a shame that's it been let go for this long. The Chatauqua bulding is actually a symbol of culture...all the old buildings around her are crumbling. Preservation committee member Wayne Grey says while the option is still available to stabalize the building, it would cost more than four hundred thousand dollars.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/11/2013	Live	2 min 26 sec	When Pope Benedict announced his resignation on February 11th, talk over who will be chosen has been the topic of conversation, but a pope from the United States seems out of the question. Father Michael Haag of Christ the King in Greenup and Father John Titus of St. Charles Borromeo in Charleston say it's because we're a first world coutry and people don't want America to take over. Cardinals that vote must be younger than 80 years old. After voting either black or white smoke will appear from the roof of the Sistine Chapel. Tomorrow one hundred and 15 cardinal-electors will be locked out from the rest of the world and will begin voting after a morning mass.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/12/2013	Live	2 min 55 sec	The students at St. Mary's School in Paris today watched anxiously for a new pope to appear on television. Many students were disappointed that a new pope wasn't chosen today. Teacher Corrinna Talley says it's a decision that shouldn't be rushed. Now only those cardinals under the age of 80 are eligible to vote for a new pope. Pope Benedict who stepped down at the end of last month appointed sixty-seven of the cardinals voting today.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/12/2013	Live	19 sec	Senator Dick Durbin doesn't plan to retire any time soon. The partying is hoping to retain control of the Senate in 2014. Durbin won 68 percent of the vote in his 2008 re-election victory.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/13/2013	Live	1 min 8 sec	People around the world and here in central Illinois are celebrating after the Vatican announced the election of Argentine Jorge Bergoglio to the papacy. EIU student Carolyn Brennan is very excited to have a new pope just in time for the Holy week and for Easter. Bergoglio reportedly finished second in the 2005 conclave that produced Benedict 16th, who last month became the first pope to resign in 600 years. The 76-year-old archbishop of Buenos Aires has spent nearly his entire career at home in Argentina.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/13/2013	Live	31 sec	Illinois is the only state in the union with a ban on concealed carry. In December, a federal court ruled the ban on unconstitutional and told Illinois lawmakers they have until June 8th to create concealed carry legislation. Instead, Governor Quinn wants the state attorney general to appeal the ruling, moving the case to the Supreme Court. Attorney General Lisa Madigan told reporters today that she want to wait and see what lawmakers will do before considering an appeal.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/13/2013	Live	33 sec	The Vigo County council denied Coroner Susan Amos' request for a raise Tuesday. Amos currently earns about 32 thousand dollars, the 50 percent increase would have put her at 48 thousand dollars. A council committee member says they looked at salaries of other coroners in counties of similar size, and that's how they determined the current salary. Amos says the average salary in Indiana is about 42 thousand.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/13/2013	Live	32 sec	New legislation may make it illegal to serve or eat lion meat. Currently it is not illegal in Illinois, but one lawmaker wants to ban it. Representative Luis Arroyo is sponsoring the measure. He says he's aware of at least two places in the state that he believes are selling the meat. The House bill would establish up to one year in jail and a fine of 25-hundred dollars.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/14/2013	Live	2 min 25 sec	Gun stores nationwide are experiencing a short supply of ammunition. One store owner says that when prices go up for them, the prices must go up for customers too. Stores such as Walmart and Rural King have put a limit on the number of boxes customers can purchase. The Charleston Police Department also commented on how the shortage is effecting them. According to FBI data, seven of the 10 biggest weeks ever for background checks for guns have occured in 2013.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/15/2013	Live	28 sec	The Illinois Department of Transportation says work will resume on the I-57 and I-70 project around Effingham in the next week. Rebuilding will begin at the exit and entrance ramps of Keller Drive and Fayette Avenue. The construction will require marked detours used to divert exiting traffic. The project should be finished by 2015.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/15/2013	Live	25 sec	The Casey Fire Department will receive funding through the Assistance to Firefighters Grant Program to purchase portable radios and other safety equipment. Fire Chief Jason Garver says Casey will receive about 120 thousand dollars.
at issue 3/15/13	18:00	3/15/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program guests discuss the real estate market in central illinois and how lending has changed in recent months and what's ahead for the future
News Watch	17:34:00	3/15/2013	Live	37 sec	Officials with Cronus Chemicals, a New York company, say they want to build a fertilizer production facility in Tuscola, but are negotiating property taxes with the state. Company representatives went before the Illinois House committee Thursday, asking for approval of tax breaks, and now they're heading to the senate. If approved the company will build just west of Tuscola on Illinois Route 36. The company will bring thousands of jobs to the area.
at issue 3/15/13	0:00	3/16/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program guests discuss the real estate market in central illinois and how lending has changed in recent months and what's ahead for the future
at issue 3/15/13	12:00	3/18/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program guests discuss the real estate market in central illinois and how lending has changed in recent months and what's ahead for the future
News Watch	17:34:00	3/20/2013	Live	24 sec	The Charleston City Council will leave their 24.7 million dollar budget on their website for five weeks. The council is set to vote on the budget in April. The proposed 2013-2014 budget will go into effect May 1st with the council's approval.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/20/2013	Live	25 sec	Officials say the Mattoon city council voted Tuesday to increase fees at Dogde Grove Cemetery. The fees are for the cost of a plot and burial. Mattoon Public Works Director Dean Barber says this year, they're raising those fees by three percent, which translates to a 20 dollar increase for burial fees.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/20/2013	Live	25 sec	Kansas Village of Edgar County is hosting a informational meeting about electrical aggregation for it's residents tonight. Officials say residents will be asked whether or not they want their electricity aggregated on the April 9th election ballet. Electrical aggregation is when cities and muncipalities purchase electricity in bulk to lower rates for customers.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/20/2013	Live	44 sec	The billed call the "Lion Meat Act" would make it illegal to slaughter or to possess, bread, buy or sell lions for the purpose of killing them for meat. It was proposed by State Representative Luis Arroyo when he found out that two companies in Illinois are allegedly selling lion meat. if the act passes Illinois will become the first state to forbid lion slaughter. Offenders would face a year in jail and up to 25-thousand dollars if convicted.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/21/2013	Live	22 sec	State officials say Illinois recycled nearly 39 million pounds of electronics during the first year of ban on throwing away the materials in landfills. Illinois residents are required to take electronics to a registered recycler. Manufacturers also are assigned minimum recycling goals and must register and participate or face fines.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/21/2013	Live	19 sec	the Charleston Chamber of Commerce is hosting a mayoral and council candidate forum tonight. Mayoral candidates will speak first and city council candidates will follow.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/22/2013	Live	2 min 34 sec	The three men campaigning to be the next Charleston mayor answered questions in a public forum Thursday night. Troy Richey, Larry Rennels, and Brian Myerscough are the three candidates for mayor. Each candidates had a separate platform or idea of how to make Charleston a better community. Myerscough went over his time limit with remarks regarding a city worker and that prompted strong reaction from the audience. The second part of the forum also included the four men running for city council.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/22/2013	Live	18 sec	the Crawford County Historical Society will be displaying a replica of Abraham Lincoln's coffin at their museum from April 9th through April 22nd. The casket resembles the one Lincoln's body traveled in as it made its way from Washington to his burial site in Springfield.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/22/2013	Live	27 sec	The Illinois House has approved a stripped-down pension plan that could delay and reduce cost-of-living increases for retirees and future retirees. Lawmakers are addressing the pension problem piece by piece instead of a total overhaul at once. It's the third scaled-back pension bill the House has recently approved.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/22/2013	Live	24 sec	The Illinois Building Blocks Program is expanding to more cities including Champaign. Building Blocks is used to assist people interested in buying vacant homes. Governor Pat Quinn says the program offers ten-thousand dollars to potential buyers to help with down payments and closing costs.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/25/2013	Live	27 sec	Representative Lou Lang sponsors a bill that if made law, would allow patients with specific medical conditions to obtain marijuana. Lang says the measure is just one or two votes short of passing the house.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/25/2013	Live	2 min 21 sec	A senate committee has approved legislation to ban smoking on all state-supported colleges and universities. Two Eastern Illinois students commented on the proposed bill. The students believe that no matter what that a student smoker would find a way to smoke on campus and would cause more stress on students who do smoke. Senate supporters hope that if the bill is passed that it would make people less inclined to smoke. The measure passed the Higher Education Committee seven to five. It now moves to the Full Senate.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/25/2013	Live	30 sec	Beginning April 7th, the Federal Aviation Administration will start a four week phased closure of a-hundred-and-49 air traffic control towers throughout the nation, and five in the state of Illinois. Decatur Airport is among those that will no longer have a control tower. Officials say all the affected airports will remain open, but will be left to coordinate takeoffs and ladings among themselves.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/26/2013	Live	27 sec	Governor Pat Quinn announced 486 million dollars in road and bridge projects scheduled to start in the spring. Some of the plans include stretches of highway in Coles, Macon, Crawford, Jasper and Clark counties. Quinn says this is part of his agenda to create jobs and drive Illinois' economy forward by investing in the transportation system.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/26/2013	Live	30 sec	Those running for Mattoon commissioner will gather for a forum at Williams Elementary school tonight. In Charleston another mayoral discussion will take place Thursday. Three candidates are on the ballet in this race.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/27/2013	Live	2min 20 sec	Two education majors from Eastern Illinois University speak about how they are worried about getting a teaching job in Illinois after recent cuts. Both students are aware that if they have to move out of state to get a job, they will. Eastern is ranked as on of the top teacher preparation programs in the state.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/27/2013	Live	24 sec	Illinois State Police spokeswoman Monique Bond says more than 70-thousand FOID card applications have been received so far this month, which is on-track to be a program record. Once you apply, state officials say there's a more than 60 day wait for your paperwork. The state police received more than three hundred thousand FOID applications last year.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/27/2013	Live	25 sec	The US Army Corps of Engineers at Lake Shelbyville rely on volunteers to staff the visitor center, clean facilities within the campground and adopt trails. Volunteers who work 20 hours a week can use a campsite with electricity, water and sewer during their stay.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/28/2013	Live	18 sec	The three men campaigning to be the next Charleston mayor will meet for their second public forum tonight at Eastern Illinois University. Those running for the position include Larry Rennels, Brian Myerscough, and Troy Richey.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/28/2013	Live	27 sec	Today, Governor Pat Quinn officially launched Blue Water's supercomputer. The computer began running this week and is one of thw world's fastest supercomputers. Officials say it can maintain a speed standard known as petaflop, which allows unusually complex calculations.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/29/2013	Live	24 sec	According to the Internal Revenue Service, Americans made only half as many mistakes in the 2011 tax year as the previous year. A Georgetown University Accounting professor says tax software programs like H and R Block and Turbo-Tax may be the reason for the decline.

6. Health

Program Title	Time	Date	Source	Length	Description
BEING WELL #302	18:00:00	1/1/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dietician Kristina Adams provides information about weight loss and keeping it off.
BEING WELL #309	0:00:01	1/2/2013	tape	26:46:00	Social worker Carolyn Sutton talks about grief and coping with loss.
BEING WELL #309	12:00:00	1/2/2013	tape	26:46:00	Social worker Carolyn Sutton talks about grief and coping with loss.
BEING WELL #309	12:30:00	1/3/2013	tape	26:46:00	Social worker Carolyn Sutton talks about grief and coping with loss.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/7/2013	Live	27 sec	Shelby County sheriff discusses new handicapped accessible enterance to the Shelby County courthouse.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/7/2013	Live	3min 28 sec	Health Watch discusses Illinois flu outbreak as one of biggest in the nation. This year's vaccine is said to be 60 percent effective, not 100 percent like previous years but health officials say it's better than nothing. Saint Anthony's Memorial Hospital in Effingham is taking extra steps such as providing masks and hand sanitizer to visitors to help stop the spread of the virus. The health department is running low on the vaccine. Check with local pharmacy or physician to receive shot.
BEING WELL #311	18:00:00	1/8/2013	tape	26:46:00	Optometrist Dr. Darcy Duzan discusses common eye problems
BEING WELL #310	0:00:01	1/9/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Sheila Baker addresses respiratory illnesses and prevention and treatment measures.
BEING WELL #311	12:00:00	1/9/2013	tape	26:46:00	Optometrist Dr. Darcy Duzan discusses common eye problems
BEING WELL #310	12:30:00	1/10/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Sheila Baker addresses respiratory illnesses and prevention and treatment measures.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/11/2013	Live	1 min 4 sec	Coles County senior citizens vulnerable to the flu virus. Heritage Woods Assisted living faculty doing their best to help stop the spread by sanitizing everything and sending workers home who are sick.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/11/2013	Live	27 sec	The Charleston School District has seen a number of flu cases. School healthcare professional Rhonda Pedigo says nearly 100 kids went home today. All six schools in the district are stepping up to clean the district.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/11/2013	Live	24 sec	Health officials say that a Coles County resident has died from this season's flu outbreak. Coles County Health Department Director of Nursing Cathie Reynolds says it's hard to say just how many residents have the flu.

News Watch	17:34:00	1/14/2013	Live	1 min 53 sec	117 students absent from Charleston schools most related to the flu. This is said to be the worst flu season the District has ever seen. Superintendent Jim Littleford discusses District's effort to prevent virus. Students are reminded to stay home at least 24 hours after their fever breaks.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/14/2013	Live	34 sec	There are still plenty of places in Coles County to receive a flu shot. Coles County health department along with area pharmacies still have doses of the vaccine available.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/14/2013	Live	26 sec	The Illinois Department of Public Health is advising hospitals to not allow visitors under the age of 18 during this flu season.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/14/2013	Live	11 sec	Lots of sick students in Charleston School District.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/15/2013	Live	23 sec	The Casey Police Department is sponsoring the Vial of Life Program for seniors. Police officials will help assist seniors with filling their medication form and if needed deliver their medicine.
BEING WELL #312	18:00:00	1/15/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Kellie Jones-Monohan discusess treatment options for people suffering with gallbladder problems
BEING WELL #311	0:00:01	1/16/2013	tape	26:46:00	Optometrist Dr. Darcy Duzan discusses common eye problems
BEING WELL #312	12:00:00	1/16/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Kellie Jones-Monohan discusess treatment options for people suffering with gallbladder problems
News Watch	17:34:00	1/16/2013	Live	20 sec	EIU students and staff are asked to fill out an online survey to take steps in becoming a tobacco-free campus.
BEING WELL #311	12:30:00	1/17/2013	tape	26:46:00	Optometrist Dr. Darcy Duzan discusses common eye problems
News Watch	17:34:00	1/17/2013	Live	25 sec	Study published in the New England Journal of Medicine states that NO evidence was found linking the influenza vaccine to increase the risk of fetal death in pregnant women.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/18/2013	Live	36 sec	Illinois Department of Public Health spokeswoman Melaney Arnold says nearly five hundred people have been admitted to hospital intensive care units with the flu this season and 50 have died. Public health officials continue to encourage people to get vaccinated. The Food Drug Administration says it's approved a new flu vaccine that's made without eggs or the influenza virus.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/21/2013	Live	2 min 25 sec	Casey High School practiced a lockdown in order for police to get hands-on practice with an active shooter situation. One parent says it gives her a little more peace of mind sending her child to school everyday. Some tactics taught in today's session are being kept under wraps so officer response can't be predicted. The officers take the training very serious after the Newton, Conneticut shooting.
BEING WELL #313	18:00:00	1/22/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Michael Babcock explains uterine fibriod tumors and treatment

BEING WELL #312	0:00:01	1/23/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Kellie Jones-Monohan discusess treatment options for people suffering with gallbladder problems
BEING WELL #313	12:00:00	1/23/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Michael Babcock explains uterine fibriod tumors and treatment
News Watch	17:34:00	1/23/2013	Live	52 sec	Manager of the Coles County Animal Shelter Julie Deters says all pets should have a heated water bowl, straw in their dog house and enough food. All of this is in preparation for the cold winter. If possible keep all pets indoors and not outside.
BEING WELL #312	12:30:00	1/24/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Kellie Jones-Monohan discusess treatment options for people suffering with gallbladder problems
News Watch	17:34:00	1/24/2013	Live	31 sec	Officials with the office of the state fire marshal say some carbon monoxide alarms reach the end of their life after about three years. Alarms should be tested every month. The National Fire Protection Association says carbon monoxide is the number one cause of poisoning deaths in the nation.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/25/2013	Live	27 sec	Before the fall, junior high and high school students must receive a booster shot against tetanus, diphtheria, and pretussis, also known as whooping cough. The board of health recently approved the State Health and Education officials recommendations.
News Watch	17:34:00	1/28/2013	Live	29 sec	The number of flu deaths in Illinois has risen to 58. State health officials say more than 530 people with the flu have been admitted to hospital intesnive care units so far this year. All the deaths but one were people 50 and older.
BEING WELL #314H	18:00:00	1/29/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program compression fractures are addressed
BEING WELL #313	0:00:01	1/30/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Michael Babcock explains uterine fibriod tumors and treatment
BEING WELL #314H	12:00:00	1/30/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program compression fractures are addressed
News Watch	17:34:00	1/30/2013	Live	22 sec	Authorities found a vehilce submerged in water earlier today from a over flowing pond in the southern region of Edgar County near Oliver. The county sheriff's department says the vehicle got stuck on a concrete slab covered in water when turning on to another road. No injuries were reported.
BEING WELL #313	12:30:00	1/31/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Michael Babcock explains uterine fibriod tumors and treatment
News Watch	17:34:00	2/1/2013	Live	27 sec	A person is air lifted from the scene of a three vehicle accident in Coles County. The accident happened just after three this afternoon and is still under investigation. There's no word yet on the condition of the others involved in the crash.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/1/2013	Live	26 sec	State officials say Superbowl weekend can be one of the deadliest days of the year in Illinois. The Department of Transportation says last year, four people were killed in crashes during Superbowl weekend, three of them were alcohol-related.

News Watch	17:34:00	2/5/2013	Live	1 min 41 sec	The Centers of Disease Control say strep throat can be spread through close contact with an infected person. The symptons include a sore throat, severe paiin when swallowing, a fever and even mild headaches. Health experts say if you have a sore throat lasting more than a week get to the doctor. A few Eastern students who had the infection spoke about their symptoms. Officials say the best way to not spread strep throat is to wash your hands frequently and avoid sharing eating utensils.
BEING WELL #302	18:00:00	2/5/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dietician Kristina Adams provides information about weight loss and keeping it off.
BEING WELL #314H	0:00:01	2/6/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program compression fractures are addressed
News Watch	17:34:00	2/6/2013	Live	31 sec	The Charleston Fire Department ran ice rescue drills today, working in freezing water. Charleston Fire Chief Pat Goodwin says these warm temperatures actually make perfect weather for the ice to crack, which means perfect weather for training.
BEING WELL #314H	12:30:00	2/7/2013	tape	26:46:00	In this program compression fractures are addressed
News Watch	17:34:00	2/7/2013	Live	26 sec	Decatur man dies in accident at Archer Midland Company. Officials say the Bodine Services employee, 31-year-old Michael Cordray was pronounced dead Wednesday at the facility. They say he was cleaning the inside of a tank at the time of the accident. ADM spokeswoman Jackie Anderson says that Cordray fell while working in a confined space at the plant.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/8/2013	Live	24 sec	Autopsy results are in for a Decatur man who died Wednesday at the Archer Daniels Midland Company plant. Coronor Michael Day says Michael Cordray died from blunt force traumatic injuries and suffocation. Cordray was pronounced dead at the scene Wednesday evening. Toxiciology reports are pending.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/8/2013	Live	23 sec	Pat Covar of Community Blood services says that although the flu plays a role in the decline, it's not the sole reason why blood donations are down this year. Covar says donations always decrease around this time of the year due to holidays and inclimate weather.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/11/2013	Live	23 sec	The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says 38 states reported widespread influenza activity last week. That's down from 42 states just the week before. 59 kids have died this season due to influenza. That's more than 34 pediatric deaths for all of last year's season.
BEING WELL #303	18:00:00	2/12/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dentist Dr. Jacob Pschirrer talks about dental health and common problems releated to teeth and gums
BEING WELL #301	0:00:01	2/13/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Shakir, oncologist provides information on prostate cancer

BEING WELL #302	12:00:00	2/13/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dietician Kristina Adams provides information about weight loss and keeping it off.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/13/2013	Live	29 sec	The city of Decatur's getting about 1 hundred 80 thousand dollars from a class-action settlement with the maker of the herbicide atrazine. Syngenta executives are greeing to a $105 million settlement that's being divided among more than 1000 communities that have spent millions to filter the weed killer out of their drinking water.
BEING WELL #301	12:30:00	2/14/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Shakir, oncologist provides information on prostate cancer
News Watch	17:34:00	2/15/2013	Live	28 sec	Carle Foundation Hospital in Urbana says their delivery and postpartum patients will be limited to five visitors at once be cause of this year's flu season. People with respiratory symptoms need to wear a mask. Officials with Saint Anthony's Memorial Hospital in Effingham and Paris Community Hospital say no one should visit if they have a cold or flu-like symptoms and are under the age of 18.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/19/2013	Live	29 sec	Reports of influenza like illnesses have gone down for the third consecutive week. The Centers for Diseas Control says fewer states are reporting high activity levels. Illinois health officials say more than 600 people statewide have been admitted to hospital intensive care units with the flu this season and at least 96 have died.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/19/2013	Live	19 sec	At Eastern Illinois University a group wants to make the campus a tobacco free community. Students and the campus community will have the opportunity to share their opinions about a tobacco free campus at an open forum Wednesday evening.
BEING WELL #304	18:00:00	2/19/2013	tape	26:46:00	Orthopedic Surgeon Chip Rowe talks about joint replacement and what options are avaailable.
BEING WELL #302	0:00:01	2/20/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dietician Kristina Adams provides information about weight loss and keeping it off.
BEING WELL #303	12:00:00	2/20/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dentist Dr. Jacob Pschirrer talks about dental health and common problems releated to teeth and gums
News Watch	17:34:00	2/20/2013	Live	34 sec	EIU's Health Education Resource Center, along with the Tobacco Free Campus Initiative, will host a meeting this evening in the Martin Luther King Jr. University Union. Last month, the school sent out a survey to students, staff, and faculty so they could gauge people's opinion of the issue.
BEING WELL #302	12:30:00	2/21/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dietician Kristina Adams provides information about weight loss and keeping it off.

News Watch	17:34:00	2/22/2013	Live	26 sec	The Illinois Department of Transportation will start contrustion on three sets of bridges on interstate 70 near Greenup. Construction is expected to start February 25th. Due to the construction, traffic on I-70 and Illinois Route 121 will be reduced to one lane through the fall of 2013.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/25/2013	Live	2 min 2 sec	Construction started today on the stretch between Greenup and Effingham. I-70 is one of the nation's most heavily traveled highways and this stretch in Illinois is no expection. The construction is taxpayer funded and the repairs are necessary. Officials strongly urge drivers to use extreme caution when driving through construction areas.
BEING WELL #301	12:00:00	2/26/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Shakir, oncologist provides information on prostate cancer
BEING WELL #305	18:00:00	2/26/2013	tape	26:46:00	Poditrist John Killough is our guest who talks to us about foot care, choosing the right shoe and foot ailments.
BEING WELL #303	0:00:01	2/27/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dentist Dr. Jacob Pschirrer talks about dental health and common problems releated to teeth and gums
BEING WELL #304	12:00:00	2/27/2013	tape	26:46:00	Orthopedic Surgeon Chip Rowe talks about joint replacement and what options are avaailable.
News Watch	17:34:00	2/27/2013	Live	25 sec	Carle Mattoon covenient care is now updating wait times for all four of its east central Illinois locations. Those updates will happen every 7 minutes on the care center's homepage.
BEING WELL #303	12:30:00	2/28/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dentist Dr. Jacob Pschirrer talks about dental health and common problems releated to teeth and gums
News Watch	17:34:00	2/28/2013	Live	31 sec	Norovirus is th typical cause of the "stomach bug" and the Centers for Disease Control says most outbreaks happen between November and April. Health officials say the virus causes more than 70-thousand hospitalizations and 800 deaths in the U.S. each year.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/4/2013	Live	28 sec	Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center in Mattoon is currently in the process of changing it's visitor rule to be more patient friendly. In the past, visitors under 16 years old weren't allowed to visit patients in the hospital. Starting Wednesday there will be no age restrictions.
BEING WELL #306	18:00:00	3/5/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Bernie Ranchero talks about allergies, what causes them and how to best treat them.
BEING WELL #304	0:01:00	3/6/2013	tape	26:46:00	Orthopedic Surgeon Chip Rowe talks about joint replacement and what options are avaailable.
BEING WELL #304	12:30:00	3/7/2013	tape	26:46:00	Orthopedic Surgeon Chip Rowe talks about joint replacement and what options are avaailable.

News Watch	17:34:00	3/8/2013	Live	2 min 38 sec	On February 26th, 87-year-old Lorainne Bayless died at her independent living center in California. A dispater pleaded with a nurse to perform CPR but the nurse refused, saying it was part of the facility's policy. The Charleston Rehablilitation and Health Care Center deals with a lot of patients on a daily basis. Administrator Sara Edwards says each person fills out a lot of paperwork when they decide to live there, one in which is a do not Resuscitate order. Edwards says the facility is also strict followers of health care laws and that patients wishes must be held above everyone elses. No criminal charge will be filed against the California nurse. Bayless' family says they won't sue or try to profit from the death.
BEING WELL #307	18:00:00	3/12/2013	tape	26:46:00	Vasuclar Surgeon Brian Wheatley talks about diseases stemming from the vascular system and we can prevent them.
BEING WELL #305	0:03:00	3/13/2013	tape	26:46:00	Poditrist John Killough is our guest who talks to us about foot care, choosing the right shoe and foot ailments.
BEING WELL #306	12:00:00	3/13/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Bernie Ranchero talks about allergies, what causes them and how to best treat them.
BEING WELL #305	12:30:00	3/14/2013	tape	26:46:00	Poditrist John Killough is our guest who talks to us about foot care, choosing the right shoe and foot ailments.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/14/2013	Live	25 sec	The Mattoon Police Department will be working overtime conduction special patrols during the St. Patrick's Day weekend starting today. Officials say this holiday can be a deadly and dangerous time on the roads. Police will be out looking for drunk drivers and those not wearing seatbelts.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/14/2013	Live	31 sec	The Department of Transportation and state police are kicking off a campaign by placing safety banners on rural roads. Officials say traffic accidents have been the second leading cause of farm related deaths since 2008. In Illinois, 29 residents have died in crashed involving farm machinery.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/18/2013	Live	29 sec	Every year The Department of Public Health in Illinois issues consumption advisories based on tests done on different bodies of water. The department says the guidelines can help people determin what type of fish to eat and how often.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/18/2013	Live	26 sec	Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center will be building a new walk-in clinic on the east side of Charleston at the Charleston Commons shopping center near Wal-Mart. The groundbreaking ceremony will be Thursday and the facility should be finished by early fall.
BEING WELL #308	18:00:00	3/19/2013	tape	26:46:00	Pharmacist Tom Hemberhehl talks about OTC and prescription medications, he also addresses how to get rid of old medications

BEING WELL #306	0:00:01	3/20/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Bernie Ranchero talks about allergies, what causes them and how to best treat them.
BEING WELL #307	12:00:00	3/20/2013	tape	26:46:00	Vasuclar Surgeon Brian Wheatley talks about diseases stemming from the vascular system and we can prevent them.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/20/2013	Live	20 sec	In a report released today by the University of Wisconsin Population Health Institute, Douglas County is the healthiest of the state's 102 counties. Other counties in the area at the top of the list area are Piatt coming in at 20, Champaign at 23, Effingham at 24, and around the middle, Coles County is 55th in the state.
BEING WELL #306	12:30:00	3/21/2013	tape	26:46:00	Dr. Bernie Ranchero talks about allergies, what causes them and how to best treat them.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/21/2013	Live	20 sec	Earlier today, ground was broken on the new walk-in health clinic in Charleston. The facility will be located in Charleston Commons Shopping Center. The new clinic will be nearly four thousand square feet and offer X-ray and laboratory services.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/21/2013	Live	27 sec	A senate committee have voted to ban smoking on all state-supported colleges and universities. The measure now moves to full senate. The bill would ban smokihng anywhere on state-supported public university or community college campus effective July 1st, 2014.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/21/2013	Live	28 sec	The Food and Drug Administration has scrapped a series of warning labels for cigarettes. The Centers of Disease Control says the percentage of adult Americans who smoke has declined over the last 45 years from 42.4 percent to 19 percent. The CDC says cigarette smoking is the leading caue of "preventable death" in the U.S.
News Watch	17:34:00	3/22/2013	Live	19 sec	Old Main or the Castle building will be illuminated red next week in ovservance of American Red Cross month. You can check out the lights from March 26th through the 28th.
BEING WELL #309	18:00:00	3/26/2013	tape	26:46:00	Social worker Carolyn Sutton talks about grief and coping with loss.
BEING WELL #307	0:00:00	3/27/2013	tape	26:46:00	Vasuclar Surgeon Brian Wheatley talks about diseases stemming from the vascular system and we can prevent them.
BEING WELL #308	12:00:00	3/27/2013	tape	26:46:00	Pharmacist Tom Hemberhehl talks about OTC and prescription medications, he also addresses how to get rid of old medications
BEING WELL #307	12:30:00	3/28/2013	tape	26:46:00	Vasuclar Surgeon Brian Wheatley talks about diseases stemming from the vascular system and we can prevent them.