QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAMS LIST
1st QUARTER 2013

Attached are the top issues of importance to our community, as determined by ascertainment interviews conducted from January 1- December 31, 2012. Also listed with each issue are samples of non-entertainment programming to address these issues. All were broadcast during the period January 1 through March 31, 2013. Date, title, segment length (or story summary) and brief subject matter are listed. With one week's exception Columbus Perspective aired on Sunday mornings from 6:00am to 7:00am on WBNS-AM (1460) and from 7:00am to 8:00am on WBNS-FM (97.1).

The dates the programs aired are listed on the logs.

COLUMBUS PERSPECTIVE: 1st QUARTER 2013

1. EMPLOYMENT/ECONOMY

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
1/20/13	Ben Johnson with Ohio Department of Jobs and Family Services	He discusses the current Ohio unemployment rate	3:00
1/27/13	Governor John Kasich	He speaks from Switzerland, attending an economic conference. He talks about Ohio's economy, saying it's doing the best among Midwestern states in job creation and business expansions. He talks about JobsOhio being a new approach to doing development business in Ohio. This interview was conducted by The Wall Street Journal (credited) and sent to RadiOhio by the Governor's office.	8:00
2/10/13	General Motors Head of Consumer Affairs James Bell	He talks about the new diesel Chevy Cruze, built in Lordstown. It's being introduced this week at the Chicago Auto Show.	9:00
2/10/13	Ohio Oil and Gas Association Executive Vice President Tom Stewart	He talks about his opposition to an increase in taxes on the oil and gas industry proposed by Governor John Kasich. Stewart says it doesn't matter that other states similar taxes because it is unfair to provide a state income tax cut by burdening of a single industry. He also said the practice of hydraulic fracturing (or fracking) has been proven to be safe.	8:00
2/17/13	Governor John Kasich	He talks about his budget proposal, defending his plan to broaden the sales tax on services such as haircuts, concert and sporting tickets and cable-TV bills, saying people need to see beyond their own world. He also plans to increase the severance tax on oil and gas drillers in the state and use much of that revenue to provide an income tax cut. He also talks briefly about his education funding plan.	9:00

3/10/13	Ben Johnson with Ohio Department of Job and Family Services	He talks about unemployment numbers, which are 7% in January—up from 6.7% in December. He says the state is adding jobs but there are more people entering the job market.	4:00
3/10/13	Ohio Senate President Keith Faber	He says Ohio's economy is on the rebound and will continue recovering. He also talks about the state budget work, saying the House is debating the budget bill now so it's too early for the Senate to have all the facts. He says people are very concerned about expanding Medicaid and about the cost to the federal government to do that. But he says there is also concern about making sure Ohioans have health care. He says his caucus is 100% behind tax reform but the devil is in the details and he isn't sure yet what the best policy is for balancing the needs of Ohio.	7:00
3/10/13	House Minority Leader Armond Budish	He talks about work on the state budget. He says Governor Kasich's job-creating record is not strong—that much of it was in the works under Governor Strickland and President Obama's work with the auto industry. He also credits Kasich for supporting expanded Medicaid in Ohio and says if that issue is taken out of the overall budget bill Democrats would support the expansion.	7:00
3/17/13	Ohio Budget Director Tim Keen	He talks about the governor's budget proposal. He says there is resistance from some Republicans to embrace Governor Kasich's proposed tax on oil and gas drillers, as well as a shift in sales taxes. But he says if those plans are changed he still anticipates an income tax reduction, which he says is a major goal of the governor.	8:00
3/31/13	Columbus Dispatch reporters Jim Siegel and Joe Vardon	They discuss JobsOhio, which is now being audited by Republican State Auditor Dave Yost, over the objections of Governor John Kasich.	6:00
3/31/13	Political strategists Terry Casey (Republican) and Sam Gresham (Democrat)	They discuss various state issues, including JobsOhio and the governor's tax plans.	5:00

2. GOVERNMENT

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
1/6/13	Ohio House Speaker Bill Batchelder	He looks back on the Ohio General Assembly's previous session, and talks about the damage he believes term limits have done—reducing bipartisan efforts and taking away needed experience in the House and Senate.	7:00
1/13/13	A roundtable of Statehouse reporters, including Jim Siegel and Joe Hallett and Joe Vardon with Columbus Dispatch, and Joe Ingles with Ohio Public Radio.	They discuss what they expect from Ohio politics in 2013	17:00
1/13/13	Ohio Republican Party strategist Bob Clegg and Democratic Strategist Dale Butland	They discuss the state of politics in Ohio	4:00
1/20/13	Dave Leland, former Ohio Democratic Party Chairman, and political strategists Sam Gresham and Terry Casey	They talk about Ohio politics, including Leland talking about Ted Strickland's decision not to run for Governor in 2014, and his thoughts on what Democratic candidate may run against John Kasich.	19:00
1/27/13	Columbus Dispatch Reporter Jack Torry	He talks about President Obama's second term.	7:00
1/27/13	Republican strategist Terry Casey and Democratic strategist Dale Butland	They discuss gun control and debate on an assault weapons ban	10:00
1/27/13	Jennifer Jenkins with the IRS	She gives tax tips and information on what's available to the public through the IRS. She also talks about the popularity of e-filing.	15:00
2/3/13	NARAL Pro-Choice Ohio Executive Director Kellie Copeland	She talks about the group's opposition to a bill that would ban abortions in Ohio if a sonogram required by the legislation detects a fetal heartbeat. She says abortion is a legal procedure and this is another example of efforts by pro-life groups to take away the right of a woman to choose and put the decision into the hands of politicians. She also says if legal abortions were prevented it will allow unwanted babies to be born into a society that is ill-prepared to care for them.	13:00
2/3/13	WBNS 10-TV reporters Jim Heath and Tracy Townsend, and Columbus Dispatch reporters Jack Torry and Jessica Wehrman	The talk about their time in Washington for the inauguration of President Obama	15:00

2/10/13	Ohio Oil and Gas Association Executive Vice President Tom Stewart	He talks about his opposition to an increase in taxes on the oil and gas industry proposed by Governor John Kasich. Stewart says it doesn't matter that other states similar taxes because it is unfair to provide a state income tax cut by burdening of a single industry. He also said the practice of hydraulic fracturing (or fracking) has been proven to be safe.	8:00
2/17/13	Governor John Kasich	He talks about his budget proposal, defending his plan to broaden the sales tax on services such as haircuts, concert and sporting tickets and cable-TV bills, saying people need to see beyond their own world. He also plans to increase the severance tax on oil and gas drillers in the state and use much of that revenue to provide an income tax cut. He also talks briefly about his education funding plan.	9:00
2/17/13	State Senator Eric Kearney	He talks about the governor's budget proposal. He says he's trying to figure out why some poor districts will receive no additional money but Olentangy schools in Delaware County, one of the wealthier districts, will get millions more. He says he supports the governor's desire to expand Medicaid.	5:00
2/17/13	Congresswoman Joyce Beatty	She talks about her adjustment to her new job as a member of Congress	3:00
2/17/13	Republican strategist Terry Casey and Democratic strategist Dale Butland	They discuss state politics, with quick comments about a number of topics, including the governor's budget proposal.	4:00
2/24/13	Columbus Dispatch reporter Joe Vardon	He talks about last week's letter from State Treasurer Josh Mandel, urging legislative leaders to resist Governor Kasich's plan to expand Medicaid.	6:00
2/24/13	Republican strategist Terry Casey and Democratic strategist Dale Butland	They discuss a proposal to expand Medicaid in Ohio and other issues involving the proposed state budget.	6:00

3/3/13	1851 Center for Constitutional Law Executive Director Maurice Thompson	He talks about his opposition to expanding Medicaid in Ohio. He says it's a rare moment when a state legislature can actually have a say in reducing federal spending by not taking the offer to expand Medicaid. He says taking it will drive up the cost of private health care and eventually will increase taxes. And he says Medicaid is not a good healthcare system.	8:00
3/3/13	Columbus Dispatch Reporter Jim Siegel	He gives his thoughts on the battle looming between Governor Kasich and his fellow Republicans in the General Assembly who oppose Medicaid expansion. Siegel says he thinks in the end it will be approved, but there may be an attempt to take the Medicaid plan out of the budget proposal.	6:00
3/3/13	Republican strategist Terry Casey and Democratic strategist Dale Butland	They discuss the Governor's sales tax plan and Medicaid.	5:00
3/3/13	National Women's Law Center Vice-President for Health and Reproductive Rights Judy Waxman	She speaks in favor of Medicaid expansion, saying it'll save Ohio money in the long run through preventative care, especially since the federal government picks up the entire cost of the expansion for the first three years, and nearly all of it after that.	12:00
3/3/13	Chardon High School student Nate Mueller, who was grazed by a bullet in the shooting at his school	He spoke in Washington D.C. as a gun control advocate, and shares his support of comprehensive background checks, and a ban on assault weapons and high capacity magazines.	10:00
3/10/13	Ohio Senate President Keith Faber	He says Ohio's economy is on the rebound and will continue recovering. He also talks about the state budget work, saying the House is debating the budget bill now so it's too early for the Senate to have all the facts. He says people are very concerned about expanding Medicaid and about the cost to the federal government to do that. But he says there is also concern about making sure Ohioans have health care. He says his caucus is 100% behind tax reform but the devil is in the details and he isn't sure yet what the best policy is for balancing the needs of Ohio.	7:00

3/10/13	House Minority Leader Armond Budish	He talks about work on the state budget. He says Governor Kasich's job-creating record is not strong—that much of it was in the works under Governor Strickland and President Obama's work with the auto industry. He also credits Kasich for supporting expanded Medicaid in Ohio and says if that issue is taken out of the overall budget bill Democrats would support the expansion.	7:00
3/10/13	Political strategists Bob Clegg (Republican) and Sam Gresham (Democrat)	They discuss the governor's improving popularity in a recent poll, Medicaid expansion and tax reform.	7:00
3/10/13	U. S. Postmaster General Patrick Donahoe	He talks about the postal service plan to eliminate mail delivery on Saturday, although post offices will be open on that day. He talked about how there has been some consolidating of postal operations in Ohio.	8:00
3/17/13	Ohio Budget Director Tim Keen	He talks about the governor's budget proposal. He says there is resistance from some Republicans to embrace Governor Kasich's proposed tax on oil and gas drillers, as well as a shift in sales taxes. But he says if those plans are changed he still anticipates an income tax reduction, which he says is a major goal of the governor.	8:00
3/17/13	State Senator Nina Turner	She talks about the state budget proposal, including her support of Governor Kasich's Medicaid expansion plan, but her criticism of his school funding plan. She says Cleveland schools will get no additional revenue under the plan, despite voters finally passing a levy for the first time in decades that was a crucial first step in turning around the district.	5:00
3/17/13	Republican strategist Terry Casey and Democratic strategist Dale Butland	They talk about Ohio politics, including Medicaid expansion and the state budget.	6:00
3/17/13	Sue Kozak with Edward Jones	She talks about retirement savings, with generalities about ways to invest, including for those who get into retirement savings late in the game. She also talks about tax strategies as they relate to investments.	15:00
3/24/13	Columbus Dispatch reporter Jack Torrey	He talks about Senator Rob Portman's recent decision to support same-sex marriage.	3:00

3/24/13	Political strategists Bob Clegg (Republican) and Sam Gresham (Democrat)	They discuss political issues, including a proposal to broaden the state sales tax to services and increasing the severance tax on oil and gas drillers.	4:00
3/31/13	Ohio Tax Commissioner Joe Testa	He speaks favorably about Governor John Kasich's budget proposals that would lower the state sales tax from 5.5% to 5% and broaden it to more services. He also favors the 20% reduction (over three years) of the state income tax. Testa says there is much debate among state legislators over the issues but he says that's the normal process—that most proposals never come out of the statehouse exactly the way they went in.	6:00
3/31/13	Dale Butland, a spokesman for liberal policy group Innovation Ohio	He says the governor's tax cut plans will not stimulate the economy, and that his plan to reduce taxes for businesses will not give small businesses enough money to actually hire anybody. Instead, he says it will line the pockets of wealthy individuals such as lawyers, investors and hedge fund managers. ,	4:00
3/31/13	Columbus Dispatch reporters Jim Siegel and Joe Vardon	They discuss JobsOhio, which is now being audited by Republican State Auditor Dave Yost, over the objections of Governor John Kasich.	6:00
3/31/13	Political strategists Terry Casey (Republican) and Sam Gresham (Democrat)	They discuss various state issues, including JobsOhio and the governor's tax plans.	5:00

1/6/13	Kristin Castle with Ohio Department of Public Safety	She talks about domestic violence, saying abuse can be physical, psychological, sexual, emotional or even economical in nature. She says her office has a lot of resources to help people, and also talks about the signs to watch for that indicate someone you know may be suffering domestic abuse	6:00
1/20/13	President and C. E. O. of Mace Securities International in Cleveland John McCann	He talks about school safety and says Mace is a product that should be. He says some products can shoot Mace up to 20 feet and could be used to incapacitate a potential threat at a school with no loss of life.	16:00
1/27/13	Republican strategist Terry Casey and Democratic strategist Dale Butland	They discuss gun control and debate on an assault weapons ban	10:00
2/24/13	State Auditor Dave Yost	He talks about the attendance data scandal involving the Columbus City Schools and other districts. He says there is compelling evidence that Columbus intentionally altered data to mislead. He says Columbus is the only one of the handful of districts that is aggressively defending itself by spending hundreds of thousands of dollars in legal fees before the investigation is even done. He says changes are in the works so districts attendance is not based on one week out of the year, making it more difficult to "scrub" attendance data.	6:00
3/3/13	Chardon High School student Nate Mueller, who was grazed by a bullet in the shooting at his school	He spoke in Washington D.C. as a gun control advocate, and shares his support of comprehensive background checks, and a ban on assault weapons and high capacity magazines.	10:00

EDUCATION

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
1/6/13	Ohio State University President E. Gordon Gee	He says there are no regrets about the way Ohio State dealt with the NCAA in sanctions, resulting in them not being eligible for a bowl following an undefeated season. He also talks about his current time at the school compared to his first stint at OSU President, saying he believes he's more mature now and making important decisions that reflect that, when it comes to its $6 Billion budget. He says the school is Ohio's economic engine.	15:00
1/20/13	President and C. E. O. of Mace Securities International in Cleveland John McCann	He talks about school safety and says Mace is a product that should be. He says some products can shoot Mace up to 20 feet and could be used to incapacitate a potential threat at a school with no loss of life.	16:00

HEALTH

DATE	GUEST	TOPIC	LENGTH
1/6/13	Fran Madison with the Central Ohio Nutrition Center	She talks about eating healthily in the new year	3:00
1/13/13	Directions for Youth and Families C.E.O. Duane Casares	He talks about coping with anxiety.	14:00
1/13/13	Faith 2 Action President Janet Porter	She talks about the Heartbeat Bill, which died in the Ohio Senate after being approved by the House. She calls for the Senate to oust President Tom Niehaus and install next year's President, Keith Faber, now so the bill can come up for a vote. She also says that the issue of whether Ohio would be able to handle the 26,000 additional children born in the state each year (260,000 over 10 years) is not the issue—that saving those babies is the priority.	19:00
1/20/13	Directions for Youth and Families C.E.O. Duane Casares	He talks about dealing with computer/gaming addictions.	15:00

2/17/13	State Senator Eric Kearney	He talks about the governor's budget proposal. He says he's trying to figure out why some poor districts will receive no additional money but Olentangy schools in Delaware County, one of the wealthier districts, will get millions more. He says he supports the governor's desire to expand Medicaid.	5:00
2/17/13	Dr. Stephen Sinatra, a cardiologist and author of the book "The Great Cholesterol Myth."	He says cholesterol is a natural substance in the body and not the perpetrator in heart disease. He says higher cholesterol levels protect people from bacterial, viral and gastro-intestinal infections. He says sugar is the real culprit, which raises blood glucose levels and leads to inflammation within the body. He says people are eating low-fat foods, thinking they are healthy, when those foods actually replace the fat with sugar.	18:00
3/3/13	1851 Center for Constitutional Law Executive Director Maurice Thompson	He talks about his opposition to expanding Medicaid in Ohio. He says it's a rare moment when a state legislature can actually have a say in reducing federal spending by not taking the offer to expand Medicaid.
