Title of Program #4: The Littles			Origination Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Mon & Wed 7:00am (9/1/03 - 9/30/03)	9	30 (minutes)	from 5 to 9 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.
The Littles: This series focuses on the Littles family. In their quest to become productive adults, the young Littles and their friends face the same kinds of problems that young children face everyday such as issues of friendship, jealousy, honesty, prejudice, consideration for others, kindness, responsibility, risk taking and more. Each episode focuses on one such issue. Young characters with whom children can identify with carry out actions and serve as excellent role models for young viewers. The character of Grandpa, a wise, experienced older Little articulates the lesson inherent in the action as he interacts with the Little children.

Title of Program #5: Sabrina's Secret Life			Origination Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Tue & Thu 7:00am (9/1/03 - 9/30/03)	9	30 (minutes)	from 7 to 12 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.
Sabrina: This program focuses on a witch named Sabrina who struggles to understand and master her human side. Each week Sabrina confronts her two sides and discovers that the magic of becoming human can be very demanding. As she struggles to understand and master her human side, Sabrina serves as an ideal role- model for the young audience. Examples of the lessons Sabrina learns to help her become a good human include loyalty, honesty, self-efficacy, tolerance, perseverance, and independence. Sabrina is positive, self-reliant, competent and open to new ideas. She listens, learns, and does what is necessary to reinforce the lesson for others. With the help and guidance of her family and friends, she and the viewing audience come to understand what it takes to become a truly good human being.

Title of Program #6: Archie's Weird Mysteries			Origination Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Mon 7:30a & Fri 7:00am (9/1/03 - 9/30/03)	9	30 (minutes)	from 8 to 11 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.
Archie's Weird Mysteries: Each week Archie and the gang negotiate their way through yet another "weird mystery." They encounter many of the same problems and issues confronting today's pre-teens: how to get along with others; how to build and maintain self-confidence; what kinds of values and behaviors lead to both self-respect and respect from others. Because Archie, Jughead, Betty, Veronica and their classmates are engaging characters with whom young viewers easily identify, they serve as excellent role models. As they deal with such pro-social issues as honesty, perseverance, dependability, diversity, self-reliance, and self-respect, their struggles teach young viewers certain "life lessons" that both parents and teachers value.

Subject: 2nd Quarter 2003: WB Television Network Children's Programming: Commercial Information

The WB Television Network Children's Programming

Attached is a list of 2nd Quarter 2003 WB Children's Programming for your public files.

Statement

This statement is designed to furnish you with additional information concerning the commercial matter contained in the network's children's programs, and to enable you to more easily comply with the requirements of the Children's Television Act of 1990.

The following is a list of all WB Television Network programs which were produced and broadcast with the intention of primarily reaching an audience of children twelve years old and younger that were scheduled for broadcast during the second quarter of 2003. Each of these programs were formatted to allow for no more than 10.5 minutes of commercial time per hour on weekends and 12 minutes of commercial time per hour on weekdays. The actual number of network commercial minutes were included in the network traffic reports for the second quarter of 2003, which each affiliated station has received heretofore.
