BOOMERANG
CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS
FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period of January 1, 2016, to March 31, 2016:

1) Turner is in compliance with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be interrupted during children's programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).

2) Turner has treated all of the programs telecast on Boomerang as "children's programming" for the purposes of complying with the commercial limits set forth in the Act.

3) Turner has, as a standard practice, formatted and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.

4) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.

Certified by me this 5th day of April, 2016.

Toni Millner

CARTOON NETWORK
CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS
FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge and belief that the following information is accurate for the period from January 1, 2016, to March 31, 2016:

1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 10 minutes per hour of commercial limits may be telecast during children's programming* on weekdays and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).

2) Turner treated all of the programming telecast on Cartoon Network, a leading ad-supported cable television network, as "children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act except for its fall year in the "Adult Swim" block of programming created for an adult audience that airs late night seven days a week. On a weekly basis, therefore, approximately 98 hours of television programming were treated as "children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act.

3) Turner has, as a standard practice, formulated and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.

4) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there was only one instance in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above. On January 9, 2016, the commercial matter broadcast on Cartoon Network exceeded the statutory limits by 32 seconds in the hour between 7 to 8 p.m. pm due to an unintentional [illegible]. A detailed account of this incident is attached as Exhibit 1.

5) Cartoon Network regrets this incident. We respectfully request that this incident be viewed in the context of the vast amount of children's programming that Cartoon Network has telecast during this period and in the past years without incident and in full compliance with the Kid's [illegible] and regulations.

Certified by me this 5th day of April, 2016.

Toni Millner
Assistant General Counsel and
Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance
Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

---

* "Children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limit means "program originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience consisting of 12 years and under."

 During this period, the "Adult Swim" block of programming aired from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m., Zulu Mar a.m.w.r. The Adult Swim block contains regular warnings to notify and remind viewers that the content is intended for an adult audience, and is not considered "children's programming" [illegible] the content [illegible] set forth in the Act

[illegible]

On Saturday, January 9, 2016, a Cartoon Network Broadcast Operations Center ("BOC") supervisor made an unintentional mistake that resulted in a technical commercial overage in the commercial time limits in the [illegible] 8 p.m. on Cartoon Network.

The BOC supervisor was handling an infrequent weekend request to replace a commercial [illegible] scheduled play list with a new version of the commercial. The supervisor [illegible] the new version of the commercial, but did not recognize that the new version [illegible] 30-second spot and longer than the original 15-second version. The new spot aired 3 times before the error was caught and remedied. As a result, [illegible] unintentionally exceeded the weekend commercial time limits by 32 seconds during the hour between 3-8 p.m.

The incident was the simple result of human error. The [illegible] who had received training and appreciated the importance of the KidVid rules and procedures [illegible] been reminded to exercise care to ensure that any commercial substitutions in children's programming [illegible] account the time limits.

Children's Television Act Certification

Dear Affiliate:

This letter is intended to assist you in satisfying your obligations under the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "CTA") and the FCC regulations relating thereto in connection with your carriage of our video programming services (the "Discovery Networks").

The attached schedule lists the Discovery Networks that aired children's programs (as defined in the CTA) last quarter and identifies the children's programs aired on each such network. The schedule excludes all networks distributed by Discovery that did not air children's programs last quarter (Discovery Channel, TLC, Animal Planet, Investigation Discovery, Destination America, Science, American Heroes Channel (formerly Military Channel), Discovery En Español, Discovery Life Channel (formerly Discovery Fit and Health) and Velocity).

Discovery Communications, LLC certifies that, as standard practice, the children's programs identified on the attached schedule are formatted so that the total commercial time (including [illegible] avails) is no more than 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays. This is in compliance with the CTA and the rules and regulations of the FCC.

We trust that this enables you to satisfy your obligations under the CTA and its regulations in connection with your carriage of the Discovery Networks. Please forward this letter [illegible] (to any other appropriate individual(s) in your organization. As always, we appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

DISCOVERY COMMUNICATIONS, LLC
