Description: A group of Black students walked out of Booker T. Washington High School in Norfolk, Virginia on Monday in protest of a racist retweet posted by school assistant principal Amy Strickland. The tweet, originally posted shows seven high school couples—all the girls are White and all the boys are Black—posing for what appears to be a prom picture, along with the caption: "Every white girl's father's worst nightmare." Now this clearly wasn't the smartest thing to say, let alone post. However, it creates the question; do you believe that a black man is a white woman's father worst nightmare?

WGPR-FM

In our ongoing efforts to serve the public interest and promote community awareness, while fulfilling our public service commitment to our listening public, WHTD-FM / WGPR-FM embraces a multitude of different educational, community, political and societal associations and organizations. In supporting them, the station allots time for station personalities to interact with our audience and inform them of these initiatives, issues, news and events.

Community Events:

Denby High School Stop the Violence Rally (October 28, 2014): WGPR personality UKNOWCELL hosted this stop the violence rally at Denby High School which is one of the local schools that is in a high crime neighborhood.

Motown Warmth party with a purpose (October 29, 2014): WGPR's Dr. Darrius hosted a radio-thon with Motown The Musical to collect socks, blankets, and items to help the homeless population in the metro area prepare for the upcoming winter.

DMC Celebrity Wheelchair Basketball Game (November 6, 2014): WGPR personalities Big Greg, Foolish, Dr. Darrius, and Bijou Star participated in this annual wheelchair basketball game to raise money for the Rehabilitation Institute at the Detroit Medical Center.

Red Carpet Backyard BBQ For the Homeless (November 22, 2014): WGPR personalities Big Greg, Dr Darrius, Foolish and Bijou Star hosted this annual event which serves a gourmet lunch to the metro area homeless population. Also gift bags are handed out with various grocery items and toiletries for the guests to take with them after the event.
