

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS

July 1 through September 30, 2016

WIS TELEVISION
1111 Bull Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

WIS is an affiliate of the NBC television Network and, as such, carries public affairs and other non-entertainment programming offered by the network, which frequently deals with community ascertainment issues.

WIS TELEVISION COMMUNITY ISSUES LIST

July 1 through September 30, 2016

WIS identified the following issues as important to the public interest. We strived to provide significant coverage in these areas as part of our duty defined by the Federal Communications Commission.

Health Care

- Examples: Zika virus concerns, living with Alzheimer's and dementia, Affordable Care Act, fitness and weight-loss, local hospital lawsuits, hospital events, live-saving skills

Economic Concerns

- Examples: Penny tax investigation, spike in gas prices, water and sewer rates in Columbia area, jobs reports, new job announcements, job cuts, back-to-school spending, deadlines to apply for flood aid

Education

- Examples: Cost of college education, funding for South Carolina schools, sex offenses at South Carolina colleges and universities, leadership changes at local schools and universities, single-gender classrooms, pay for teachers and school supervisors

Government

- Examples: State and local budget, water-quality issues, election coverage, tax dollars used for development, public hearings on local projects, Richland County Rec Commission investigation

Local Events

- Examples: Tunnel to Towers 5K race, Fort Jackson events, Hiring our Heroes, Black Lives Matter rallies, National Night Out Celebration, Pokemon Go in the Park, Darlington Race, USC sporting events

Social Concerns

- Examples: Domestic violence numbers, donations for charities and shelters, police-related shootings, HB2 developments, hunger prevention, WIS Forum on Race Relations, Awareness Specials

WIS TELEVISION
LOCAL AND NETWORK NEWS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS
July 1 through September 30, 2016

Program	Day	Time
Local News:
WIS News 10 Sunrise	Monday – Friday	4:30-7:00 AM
WIS News 10 Midday	Monday – Friday	12:00-12:30 PM
WIS News 10 at 4	Monday – Friday	4:00-4:30PM
WIS News 10 Live at 5	Monday – Friday	5:00-6:00 PM
WIS News 10 at 6	Monday – Sunday	6:00-6:30 PM
WIS News 10 7:00 Report	Monday – Friday	7:00-7:30 PM
WIS News 10 Nightcast	Monday – Friday	11:00-11:35 PM
WIS News 10 Saturday	Saturday	9:00-10:00 AM
WIS News 10 Sunday	Sunday	10:00-11:00 AM
WIS News 10 Nightcast	Saturday & Sunday	11:00-11:30 PM

All of the above programs are locally produced news, presenting a mix of news, weather, sports and issues-related feature stories and segments.

Local Public Affairs:

Awareness	Sunday	11:00-11:30 AM
-----------	--------	----------------

Awareness is a locally produced program focusing on issues of interest to the minority community.

Editorials:

WIS General Manager presents weekly segments written by our editorial board on issues of local and national interest. These normally air multiple times each week in our newscasts.

NBC News:

Early Today	Monday-Friday	4:00-4:30 AM
-------------	---------------	--------------

This business news and consumer show gives viewers breaking business news and stock market action from the domestic and foreign exchanges.

Today Show	Monday-Friday	7:00-10:00 AM
Today Show	Monday-Friday	11:00 AM-Noon

This four-hour network program provides the latest in international and domestic news, weather reports and interviews with newsmakers from the world of politics, business, media, entertainment and sports. WIS News 10 provides local cut-ins at various times.

Weekend Today	Saturday and Sunday	7:00-9:00 AM 8:00-9:00 AM
---------------	------------------------	------------------------------

Weekend editions continue the “Today” tradition of covering breaking news, interviewing newsmakers, reporting on a variety of popular culture and human interest stories, covering topics related to health and finance and presenting the latest sports and weather information. WIS News 10 provides local cut-in at various times.

NBC Nightly News	Monday-Sunday	6:30-7:00 PM
------------------	---------------	--------------

“NBC Nightly News” provides reports and analysis of the day’s most newsworthy national and international events. It offers solution-driven programming that delves into the toughest issues facing our society today.

Dateline NBC	Weekly	Various Times
--------------	--------	---------------

This network program has pioneered a unique approach to prime time news programming with its multi-broadcast franchise. With this schedule, the one-hour newsmagazine enables NBC News to present its best reporting, investigative features, and newsmaker profiles in a consistent and comprehensive manner.

Meet the Press	Sunday	9:00-10:00 AM
----------------	--------	---------------

This one-hour network news program consists of three interview segments with guests of national and international political importance, followed by an expanded roundtable discussion at the end of each broadcast.

MEET THE PRESS (NBC)

DATE: Sunday, July 3

In a Sunday exclusive interview with moderator Chuck Todd, Sen. Tom Cotton (R-Ark.) refused to support Republican presumptive nominee Donald Trump, saying that “Donald Trump can ultimately make the case for himself.”

DATE: Sunday, July 10

On a special edition of “Meet the Press with Chuck Todd” this morning, Homeland Security Sec. Jeh Johnson responded to former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani’s comments that Black Lives Matter makes “it seem like all police are against blacks,” telling Todd: “Let’s all dial back the overheated political rhetoric.”

DATE: Sunday, July 17

In a special edition of “Meet the Press with Chuck Todd” in Cleveland ahead of the Republican National Convention, Republican National Committee Chair Reince Priebus discussed the party’s 2013 autopsy report after former Gov. Romney’s presidential loss: “The autopsy really is about engaging in black, Hispanic, Asian communities, being a full-time party, investing in data and also, watching your mouth” which Republican presumptive nominee Donald Trump has “done much better at.”

DATE: Sunday, July 24

In a Sunday exclusive interview, Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump commented on the latest on proposed Muslim ban, telling moderator Chuck Todd: “You could say it’s an expansion. I’m looking now at territories. People were so upset when I used the word Muslim. ‘Oh, you can’t use the word Muslim.’ Remember this. And I’m okay with that, because I’m talking territory instead of Muslim.”

(Transcript)

CHUCK TODD:

This Sunday, the Democratic National Convention gets underway here in Philadelphia, after a raucous and unpredictable Republican convention. That ended with the nomination of Donald Trump.

DONALD TRUMP:

I am with you, I will fight for you, and I will win for you.

CHUCK TODD:

This morning, my sit-down with Donald Trump on his convention speech.

DONALD TRUMP:

The only negative reviews were a little dark.

CHUCK TODD:

On whether he’s backing off on his Muslim band.

DONALD TRUMP:

I actually don't think it's a pull-back. In fact, you could say it's an expansion.

CHUCK TODD:

And on Hillary Clinton's choice of Tim Kaine.

DONALD TRUMP:

Tim Kaine was a slap in the face to Bernie Sanders.

CHUCK TODD:

Plus Hillary Clinton and Tim Kaine hit the road in Florida.

HILLARY CLINTON:

Tim Kaine is everything Donald Trump and Mike Pence are not.

CHUCK TODD:

But some Bernie Sanders supporters are criticizing the Kaine pick as a sellout to moderates. I'll talk to Sanders and get his reaction to that and to the DNC Wikileaks e-mail release. Joining me for insight and analysis are MSNBC's Rachel Maddow, former chairman of the RNC, Michael Steele, NBC News Chief Foreign Affairs Correspondent, Andrea Mitchell, and host of Hardball and Philadelphia hometown boy, Chris Matthews. Trump, Sanders and reactions to the new Democratic ticket. Welcome to Sunday, in a special edition of Meet the Press at the Democratic National Convention.

CHUCK TODD:

Good Sunday morning. We are at the Wells Fargo Center here in South Philadelphia, home of the NBA 76ers and the NHL Broad Street Bullies, the Fliers. Democrats have begun to arrive, along with a pretty bad heat wave. And beginning tomorrow, they will gather to officially nominate Hillary Clinton as their presidential candidate.

Yesterday in Miami, Clinton was joined by her new running mate, Senator Tim Kaine of Virginia, in an upbeat event that was notable simply by the contrast to the disorganized rollout of Donald Trump's running mate a week earlier, Mike Pence.

(BEGIN TAPE)

SEN. TIM KAINE:

Hillary Clinton, she doesn't insult people, she listens to them. What a novel concept, right? She doesn't trash our allies, she respects them. And she'll always have our backs, that is something I am rock solid sure of.

(END TAPE)

CHUCK TODD:

We will get to reaction to the new Democratic ticket later in the show, including my interview with Senator Bernie Sanders of Vermont in a moment. But first, we're going to talk also about Sanders, about those Wikileaks emails and what they may say about DNC favoritism towards Hillary Clinton. But we begin with the man who has now taken control of the Republican Party. It's nominee Donald Trump.

I traveled to Trump National Golf Club in Bedminster, New Jersey, sort of his weekend getaway, last night for a face-to-face interview since dropping the word "presumptive," it's his first one, from the nominee title. We touched on so much: Tim Kaine, Trump's tax returns, his proposed restrictions on Muslim immigration and why he says he alone can fix the country's problems. But I began by asking him how it feels to be the Republican nominee for president of the United States.

(BEGIN TAPE)

DONALD TRUMP:

Well, it really feels great. And we really have a very unified party, other than a very small group of people that, frankly, lost. And we have a very unified party. You saw that the other night with the love in the room, and the enthusiasm in the room. The enthusiasm, there are people that say they have never seen anything like what was going on in that room, especially Thursday night.

CHUCK TODD:

Let me tell you, you bring up Thursday night, I've got to ask you about your entrance. Before we get serious here. That Monday night entrance was something else. I know you've gotten a lot of feedback on it. How'd you come up with it?

DONALD TRUMP:

I think I'm a little bit lucky, and a couple of people had that idea and I went along with the idea. And everything just worked right. And it was so good that they wanted to do it on Thursday night. I said, "Never in a million years, because you'll never get it that way again."

CHUCK TODD:

I don't think I've seen that even on WWE.

DONALD TRUMP:

Yeah, I know. Well, Vince is a good friend of mine. He called me, he said, "That was a very, very good entrance." But I didn't want to do it a second time, because, you know, it never works out the second time.

CHUCK TODD:

All right, let's go into the speech. I want to put some meat on the bones. But first, let's talk about, you've seen some of the positive reviews, some of the negative reviews. Some of the negative has been that it was a little dark--

DONALD TRUMP:

That's the only thing that--

CHUCK TODD:

--that there wasn't enough optimism in it. What would you say? It's not Morning in America.

DONALD TRUMP:

Yeah.

CHUCK TODD:

What would you say to that?

DONALD TRUMP:

Well, I think the only negativity, and, you know, the hate, I call them the haters, and that's fine. But the only negative reviews were, "A little dark." And the following day, they had another attack, and then today you see what happened in Afghanistan with many, many people killed.

They have no idea how many, so many killed. Yesterday it was Munich. And you know, I know they're saying, "Maybe it wasn't terrorism. Maybe it was just a crazy guy." But in the meantime he's screaming, "Allahu Akbar," as he's shooting people, so, you know, we'll see how that turns out. And all of a sudden people are saying, "Maybe it wasn't dark at all." But the only thing that some people said, "It was a little dark. It was a little bit tough."

CHUCK TODD:

Do you think it was a little dark?

DONALD TRUMP:

No, oh, I thought it was very optimistic. To me, it was an optimistic speech, because--

CHUCK TODD:

What makes it optimistic in your view?

DONALD TRUMP:

Because we're going to stop the problems. We're going to stop the problems. In other words, sure, I talk about the problems, but we're going to solve the problems.

CHUCK TODD:

One of the phrases you used, "I alone can fix it." And to some people, that sounded almost too strong-mannish for them. Do you understand that criticism and what do you make of it?

DONALD TRUMP:

I'll tell you, part of it was I'm comparing myself to Hillary. And we know Hillary, and we look at her record. Her record has been a disaster. And I am running against Hillary. It's not like I'm running against the rest of the world. I know people that are very, very capable that could do a very good job, but they could never get elected.

I can tell you right now. I can give you ten names of people that would do an extraordinary job, but there's no way they could ever get elected. They wouldn't know where to begin. It wouldn't be for them. But for governing, they would be good. I'm running and, you know, against one person.

CHUCK TODD:

You said there would be consequences for any company that tried to move a factory out. What--

DONALD TRUMP:

Absolutely, so simple--

CHUCK TODD:

--what is the consequence? Let's start with, you bring up Carrier a lot.

DONALD TRUMP:

It's so simple--

(OVERTALK)

CHUCK TODD:

Right, I understand that. But explain the consequences--

DONALD TRUMP:

Okay, here's the consequence--

CHUCK TODD:

What would it be?

DONALD TRUMP:

So Carrier comes in, they announce they're moving to Mexico, they fire all their people in Indiana, and they say, "Hi, well, here we are in Mexico, you know, enjoy your plant, enjoy the rest of your life," and you hire people from Mexico, okay? Now they make their product and they put it into the United States.

Well, we will have a very strong border, by the way, but they put it into the United States and we don't charge them tax. There will be a tax to be paid. If they're going to fire all their people, move their plant to Mexico, build air conditioners, and think they're going to sell those air conditioners to the United States, there's going to be a tax.

CHUCK TODD:

What kind of tax are you thinking?

DONALD TRUMP:

It could be 25 percent. It could be 35 percent. It could be 15 percent. I haven't determined. And it could be different for different companies. We have been working on trying to stop this government, because we don't know what we're doing. And not only Obama, they've been trying to stop this from before Obama. But they don't know. You know, they've done, they've tried lower interest loans, they've tried zero interest loans, these guys--

CHUCK TODD:

Well, some of these things aren't going to get through the World Trade Organization. There's--

DONALD TRUMP:

It doesn't matter. Then we're going to renegotiate or we're going to pull out. These trade deals are a disaster, Chuck. World Trade Organization is a disaster.

CHUCK TODD:

You know the concern on some of this--

DONALD TRUMP:

NAFTA is a disaster--

CHUCK TODD:

-- is that it would rattle the world economy. Look what Brexit did to the world economy. Investors got rattled.

DONALD TRUMP:

What did it do? What did it do?

CHUCK TODD:

Now you--

DONALD TRUMP:

The stock market's higher now than it was when it happened. And by the way, I'm the only one of all of these people at the higher level of the wonderful world of politics, I'm the only one that said, "Brexit's going to happen." Remember, I was asked the question. I said, "Yeah, I think they're going to approve it. I think they want independence. I don't think they want people pouring into their country." And I was--

CHUCK TODD:

You're not worried about, you think a fractured Europe is good for America?

DONALD TRUMP:

No, no. But we're spending a lot of money on Europe. Don't forget, Europe got together, why, primarily did they get together? So that they could beat the United States when it comes to making money, in other words, foreign trade--

CHUCK TODD:

Economic--

DONALD TRUMP:

Okay? And now we talk about Europe like it's so wonderful. Hey, I love Europe, I have property in Europe. I'm just saying, the reason that it got together was like a consortium so that it could compete with the United States--

CHUCK TODD:

So what you're saying is all this stuff is good for America, even if it's not good for Europe?

DONALD TRUMP:

Look, you take a look at Airbus. They make more planes now than Boeing, okay? They got together, all of these countries got together so that they could beat the United States. Okay, so we're in competition. So you know, we're in competition in one way, we're helping them in another way. It is so messed up.

CHUCK TODD:

The Muslim ban. I think you've pulled back from it, but you tell me.

(BEGIN TAPE)

DONALD TRUMP:

We must immediately suspend immigration from any nation that has been compromised by terrorism until such time as proven vetting mechanisms have been put in place.

(END TAPE)

CHUCK TODD:

This feels like a slight rollback--

DONALD TRUMP:

I don't think that's--

CHUCK TODD:

Should it be interpreted--

DONALD TRUMP:

I don't think so. I actually don't think it's a rollback. In fact, you could say it's an expansion. I'm looking now at territories. People were so upset when I used the word Muslim. Oh, you can't use the word Muslim. Remember this. And I'm okay with that, because I'm talking territory instead of Muslim.

But just remember this: Our Constitution is great. But it doesn't necessarily give us the right to commit suicide, okay? Now, we have a religious, you know, everybody wants to be protected. And that's great. And that's the wonderful part of our Constitution. I view it differently.

Why are we committing suicide? Why are we doing that? But you know what? I live with our Constitution. I love our Constitution. I cherish our Constitution. We're making it territorial. We have nations and we'll come out, I'm going to be coming out over the next few weeks with a number of the places. And it's very complex--

CHUCK TODD:

Well I was just going to say--

DONALD TRUMP:

--we have problems in Germany and we have problems with France--

CHUCK TODD:

I was just going to ask that. Will this limit--

DONALD TRUMP:

You know, so it's not just the countries with--

CHUCK TODD:

--would this limit immigration from France?

DONALD TRUMP:

What we're going to have is a thing called--

CHUCK TODD:

They've been compromised by terrorism.

DONALD TRUMP:

They have totally been. And you know why? It's their own fault. Because they allowed people to come into their territory--

CHUCK TODD:

So you would toughen up. You're basically saying, "Hey, if the French want to come over here, you've got to go through an extra check."

DONALD TRUMP:

It's their own fault, because they've allowed people over years to come into their territory. And that's why Brexit happened, okay? Because the U.K. is saying, "We're tired of this stuff, what's going on, we're tired of." But listen to this--

CHUCK TODD:

You could get to the point where you're not allowing a lot of people to come into this country from a lot of places.

DONALD TRUMP:

Maybe we get to that point. Chuck, look what's happening. Look at what just took place in Afghanistan, where they blow up a whole shopping center with people, they have no idea how many people were even killed. Happened today. So we have to be smart and we have to be vigilant and we have to be strong. We can't be the stupid people--

CHUCK TODD:

So France, Germany, Spain--

DONALD TRUMP:

Here's my plan--

CHUCK TODD:

--places that have been compromised?

DONALD TRUMP:

--here is what I want: Extreme vetting. Tough word. Extreme vetting.

CHUCK TODD:

What does that look like?

DONALD TRUMP:

Tough. We're going to have tough standards. And if a person can't prove--

CHUCK TODD:

Give me one.

DONALD TRUMP:

--that they're from an area, and if a person can't prove what they have to be able to prove, they're not coming into this country. And I would stop the Syrian migration and the Syrian from coming into this country in two seconds. Hillary Clinton wants to take 550 percent more people coming in from that area than Barack Obama. I think she's crazy. I think she's crazy. We have no idea who these people are for the most part, and you know, because I've seen them on different shows--

CHUCK TODD:

All right.

DONALD TRUMP:

--but more importantly, I've read about it. I study it. There is no way that you can vet some of these people. There is no way. Law enforcement officials, I've had them in my office. I've talked to them.

CHUCK TODD:

You realize some of these folks have nowhere to go? They're truly victims of this civil war, what do you do with them?

DONALD TRUMP:

We will help them and we will build safe havens over in Syria, and we will get Gulf States--

CHUCK TODD:

We, the United States are going to build these safe havens?

DONALD TRUMP:

We, the United States, we'll get Gulf States to pay for it, because we right now, we're going to have $21 trillion very soon, trillion, in debt. We will do safe havens and safe zones in Syria and we will get nations that are so wealthy that are not doing anything. They're not doing much. They have nothing but money. And you know who I'm talking about, the Gulf States. And we will get them to pay for it. We would lead it. I don't want to pay because our country is going down the tubes. We owe too much money.

CHUCK TODD:

All right. Let me move to something with NATO. Mitch McConnell said this about your NATO remarks in the New York Times. He said it was a rookie mistake, and that once you, let me finish the comment here. "It's a rookie mistake, and it proves that Trump needs people like us around to help steer him in the right direction on some basic things."

DONALD TRUMP:

He's 100 percent wrong. Okay? He's 100 percent wrong if he said that. I didn't hear he said that--

CHUCK TODD:

He did say it.

DONALD TRUMP:

Okay, fine, fine--

CHUCK TODD:

New York Times--

DONALD TRUMP:

If he said that, he's 100 percent wrong. And frankly it's sad. We have NATO, and we have many countries that aren't paying for what they're supposed to be paying, which is already too little, but they're not paying anyway. And we're giving them a free ride or giving them a ride where they owe us tremendous amounts of money. And they have the money. But they're not paying it. You know why? Because they think we're stupid--

CHUCK TODD:

So Estonia is paying, and if they get invaded by Russia, you're there?

DONALD TRUMP:

I feel differently. I feel very differently--

CHUCK TODD:

But if a country's not doing -- Britain hasn't done the two percent.

DONALD TRUMP:

We have countries that aren't paying. Now, this goes beyond NATO, because we take care of-- we take care of Japan, we take care of Germany, we take care of South Korea, we take care of Saudi Arabia, and we lose on everything. We lose on everything. If Mitch McConnell says that, then he's wrong.

So all I'm saying is they have to pay. Now, a country gets invaded, they haven't paid, everyone says, "Oh, but we have a treaty." Well, they have a treaty too. They're supposed to be paying. We have countries within NATO that are taking advantage of us. With me, I believe they're going to pay. And when they pay, I'm a big believer in NATO.

But if they don't pay, we don't have, you know, Chuck, this isn't 40 years ago. This isn't 50 years ago. It's not 30 years ago. We're a different country today. We're much weaker, our military is depleted, we owe tremendous amounts of money. We have to be reimbursed. We can no longer be the stupid country.

(END TAPE)

CHUCK TODD:

When we come back, what Donald Trump says about David Duke, Bernie Sanders, and whether he really plans to spend millions for the sole purpose of defeating Ted Cruz and John Kasich. Sanders about Trump and about his reaction to Tim Kaine becoming Hillary Clinton's running mate. We're in Philadelphia, site of the Democratic National Convention. Stay with us.

COMMERCIAL BREAK

CHUCK TODD:

Such a beautiful city here. Welcome back. More now of my interview with Donald Trump at The Trump National Golf Club in Bedminster, New Jersey. And since we had a limited amount of time, I ended up speeding things up by asking Trump for some quick reaction to simply some very prominent names in the news.

(BEGIN TAPE)

CHUCK TODD:

I'm just going to literally throw out a name and you'll know the question I'm asking. Bernie Sanders.

DONALD TRUMP:

Great respect for what he's done. He is being taken advantage of, and frankly, the system was rigged, and I'm the first one to say it was rigged against him. And by the way--

CHUCK TODD:

You took after him. You took after him. You said for supporting Hillary Clinton, you think he needs to--

DONALD TRUMP:

Well, I'm not a fan of Bernie Sanders. But I am a fan of one thing that he talks about: Trade. He is the only one on that side that understands trade. Now, he can't do anything about it because that's not his thing. But he has been gamed. He has been, it's a rigged system against him. And what happened with the choice of Tim Kaine was a slap in the face to Bernie Sanders and everybody. I was shocked. I love it from my standpoint, I love--

CHUCK TODD:

Why do you love the Kaine pick?

DONALD TRUMP:

Well, first of all, he took over $160,000 of gifts. And they said, "Well, they weren't really gifts, they were suits and trips and lots of different things," all for 160--

CHUCK TODD:

Legal, legal in the state of Virginia.

DONALD TRUMP:

Bob McDonnell-- I believe it was Bob McDonnell, in the meantime, he had to go to the United States Supreme Court to get out of going to jail--

CHUCK TODD:

Well, they proved to quid pro quo--

DONALD TRUMP:

--for taking a fraction of what--

CHUCK TODD:

They proved quid pro quo on that one.

DONALD TRUMP:

Excuse me, Bob McDonnell took a fraction of what Kaine took. And I think, to me, it's a big problem. Now, how do you take all these gifts? Hundreds of thousands of dollars. The other thing about him, he's bought and owned by the banks. And the third thing, he's in favor of TPP and every other trade deal that he's ever looked at. And that means he wants people not to work.

Now, he's going to change his tune. And I understand he's now going to say, "I'm against TPP." Hillary Clinton was totally in favor of TPP, which is the job killer, right? So was he. When she watched me on your show and other shows, all of a sudden she changed, because she knows she can't win that in a debate.

CHUCK TODD:

All right. Ted Cruz, I'm going to amend it, are you really going to fund a super PAC to help defeat him--

DONALD TRUMP:

Well, it's not the number one thing on my mind. Look, what's on my mind is beating Hillary Clinton. What's on my mind is winning for the Republican Party. With that being said, yeah, I'll probably do a super PAC, you know, when they run against Kasich, for $10 million to $20 million, against Ted Cruz. And maybe one other person that I'm thinking about--

CHUCK TODD:

Who's that other one person?

DONALD TRUMP:

--but I won't tell you that. I mean, he's actually such a small person, I hate to give him the publicity. But yes, I will probably do that at the appropriate at time. But I'm not going to do that until--

CHUCK TODD:

Oh, give me the small person here.

DONALD TRUMP:

No, no, don't worry about it. We'll give it to you another time.

CHUCK TODD:

All right, let me ask you about this one. David Duke announced his Senate candidacy claiming your agenda for his own, or essentially saying, "Glad that you spoke out."

DONALD TRUMP:

Are you ready, before you ask the question?

CHUCK TODD:

Newt Gingrich said, "Every Republican should repudiate this guy no matter what it takes"--

DONALD TRUMP:

I did. And I do. Are you ready? I want--

CHUCK TODD:

Would you support a Democrat over David Duke if that was what was necessary to defeat him?

DONALD TRUMP:

I guess, depending on who the Democrat, but the answer would be yes. Look, the answer is , as quick as you can say it. In fact, I went to answer you before you--

DONALD TRUMP:

Because last time with another person in your position, I did it very quickly. And they said, "He didn't do it fast enough." Rebuked. Is that okay? Rebuked, done--

CHUCK TODD:

Rebuked, done. Okay. Tax returns. A lot of conspiracy theories are being out there about why-- what's in your tax returns. You would get rid of all these conspiracy theories tomorrow--

DONALD TRUMP:

Let me tell you--

CHUCK TODD:

Probably make people look silly--

DONALD TRUMP:

Let me tell you. Let me give you a little lesson on tax returns. First of all, you don't learn very much from a tax return. I put in to the federal elections group 100 and some-odd pages of my financials. It showed, as you know, that I'm much wealthier than anybody even understood, okay? Tremendous cash, tremendous assets, tremendous all that stuff. Okay, that's it. I'm going through a routine audit. Just a routine audit, and I've had it for I think 14 years, 13 years--

CHUCK TODD:

Why?

DONALD TRUMP:

Every year they audit me. It's routine government. I would never give my tax returns until the audit's finished. But remember this: Mitt Romney, four years ago, was under tremendous pressure to give his tax returns. And he held it and held it and held it, and he fought it, and he, you know, he didn't do too well, okay? But he didn't do anything wrong on his taxes. When he gave his tax returns, people forget, not now. He gave them in September, before the election--

CHUCK TODD:

So you still might release them--

DONALD TRUMP:

No, wait a minute, wait a minute. When he did, and his tax returns are a tiny peanut compared to mine, they went through his tax returns. And they found one little sentence, another little-- there was nothing wrong. And they made him look bad. In fact I think he lost his election because of that.

CHUCK TODD:

Because of the tax returns?

DONALD TRUMP:

I think he lost. And I'll tell you why: He didn't do anything wrong. Mitt Romney did nothing wrong. But they would take out of, his weren't too big. Have you ever seen mine with the picture, they're like this high?

CHUCK TODD:

I have seen that picture, yes.

DONALD TRUMP:

Okay, so they took his tax return and they found a couple of little things. Nothing wrong, just standard. And they made him look very bad, very unfair. But with all that said, I'd love to give them, but I'm under audit. When the audit's finished I'll give them.

CHUCK TODD:

Finally, Roger Ailes. Is he helping you? Is he advising you?

DONALD TRUMP:

Well, I don't want to comment. But he's been a friend of mine for a long time, and I can tell you that some of the women that are complaining, I know how much he's helped them. And even recently, and when they write books that are fairly recently released, and they say wonderful things about him.

And now all of a sudden they're saying these horrible things about him. It's very sad. Because he's a very good person. I've always found him to be just a very, very good person. And by the way, a very, very talented person. Look what he's done. So I feel very badly. But a lot of people are thinking he's going to run my campaign.

CHUCK TODD:

Yeah, well--

DONALD TRUMP:

My campaign's doing pretty well.

CHUCK TODD:

Mr. Trump, until we meet again.

DONALD TRUMP:

Thank you very much--

CHUCK TODD:

Thank you for your time, sir, appreciate it.

(END TAPE)

DATE: Sunday, July 31

Paul Manafort, chair and chief strategist for Donald Trump's presidential campaign, told moderator Chuck Todd that it is "the Clinton narrative" to say that Trump went hard after Khizr Khan, the father of fallen U.S. Army Capt. Humayun Khan who spoke at the DNC earlier this week. He continued: "It's not about temperament."

DATE: Sunday, August 28

In an exclusive sit-down interview, Reince Priebus, chair of the Republican National Committee, acknowledged he doesn't know the new chief of nominee Donald Trump's campaign, telling Chuck Todd: "I go with the flow based on what the campaign wants to do," and in regard to new details on Bannon's background: "I don't know how much of it is true."

DATE: Sunday, September 4

Republican vice presidential nominee Mike Pence said his running mate Donald Trump has been "completely consistent" on his immigration positions when it comes to the 11 to 15 million undocumented individuals in the U.S., after "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd pressed him more than ten times on what would happen to them in a Trump administration. When asked about the leadership of the Trump campaign, the Indiana governor promised that "the person leading Donald Trump's campaign is Donald Trump," and when it comes to the appropriateness of former Fox News CEO Roger Ailes' involvement with the campaign, he said he trusts Trump's "judgment."

DATE: Sunday, September 25

John Podesta, chair of Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign, exclusively joined "Meet the Press" this morning, calling Republican nominee Donald Trump's debate invitation to Gennifer Flowers a reaction "to dive in the sewer and go for a swim." Podesta defended the campaign's invitation to entrepreneur Mark Cuban to sit in the front row at tomorrow evening's debate -- which prompted Trump's Twitter invitation to Flowers -- telling Todd: "Mark Cuban is one of the business leaders who was never involved in partisan politics who's endorsed Hillary because he thinks she'll do better for the economy."

DATE: Sunday, July 10

LOCAL ISSUES – PROGRAM

A. Narrative describing the issue and the source

Anniversary of Confederate Flag coming down in Columbia

On the one year anniversary of the Confederate Flag coming down from the South Carolina State House, a panel comes together to talk about what has changed in that time. Lawmakers, clergy and law enforcement examine what it took for the controversial symbol to be removed, what has changed in the last year and what work is still left to be done.

B. Narrative describing the program:

Community Affairs program addressing issues facing the African American Community.

C. Program information:

Date	Time	Duration	Title of program
7/10/2016	11:00am	30 Minutes	Awareness

DATE: Thursday, July 21

LOCAL ISSUES – PROGRAM

A. Narrative describing the issue and the source

Race Relations

WIS held a community forum involving representatives from local police, schools and community leaders to discuss race relations in Columbia and the Midlands. This was hosted by WIS anchor Judi Gatson and held at the local children's museum EdVenture. We invited members of the public to attend, ask questions and participate in the forum.

B. Narrative describing the program:

Community forum to talk about race-relations in the Columbia area following the death of two African-American men in police shootings and the deadly shooting of police officers in Dallas, Texas.

C. Program information:

Date	Time	Duration	Title of program
-------------	-------------	-----------------	-------------------------

7/21/2016

7:00pm

30 Minutes

WIS Forum on
Race Relations

DATE: Sunday, July 24

LOCAL ISSUES – PROGRAM

A. Narrative describing the issue and the source

A sit-down with local sheriffs to discuss community and race-relations

Sheriffs from five South Carolina counties: Lexington, Newberry, Orangeburg, Sumter and Richland discuss recent events of violence toward citizens and law enforcement. We discuss effective community policing, protocol at traffic stops, the use of deadly force and how they are engaging the community amid protests, rallies and marches. Where do we go from here? How do we move forward respectfully?

B. Narrative describing the program:

Community Affairs program addressing issues facing the African American Community.

C. Program information:

Date	Time	Duration	Title of program
7/24/2016	11:00am	30 Minutes	Awareness

DATE: Sunday, September 11

LOCAL ISSUES – PROGRAM

A. Narrative describing the issue and the source

Caring for family members suffering from Alzheimer’s

This Sunday we are talking about a disease affecting millions nationwide: Dementia and its related illness - Alzheimer's. Some 84,000 South Carolinians are suffering with Alzheimer's. As we know, this disease can be brutal and unforgiving. Not just on the patient but also the caregiver. What resources are out there to help you understand the condition, care for your loved one and yourself? Tune in this Sunday morning at 11.

B. Narrative describing the program:

Community Affairs program addressing issues facing the African American Community.

C. Program information:

Date	Time	Duration	Title of program
9/11/2016	11:00am	30 Minutes	Awareness

DATE: Sunday, September 18

LOCAL ISSUES – PROGRAM

A. Narrative describing the issue and the source

The story of a newly-freed slave who changed Columbia, SC

An historic home in our own backyard tells the story of a newly freed slave who purchased property in Columbia and with it started a new life for her family and the generations to follow. The Mann-Simons Site on Awareness with Historic Columbia.

B. Narrative describing the program:

Community Affairs program addressing issues facing the African American Community.

C. Program information:

Date	Time	Duration	Title of program
9/18/2016	11:00am	30 Minutes	Awareness

WIS EDITORIALS

The following WIS editorials ran multiple times each week and were posted to wistv.com:

July 11

My Take: Let's build bridges rather than tear them down

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) -A series of heart-wrenching events have played out across our screens this week. Each leaving people in tears and asking "why?" It began with the fatal officer-involved shooting of a man outside a Baton Rouge convenience store. Then, another man was shot and killed by an officer during a traffic stop in Minnesota, the aftermath streamed on Facebook Live. And then, late Thursday night, the ambush shooting of 12 Dallas law enforcement officers, 5 of whom died. They were all shot by a man said to be fueled by hate and rage. The irony being that his violent attack was carried out during what was supposed to be a peaceful protest.

Emotions are understandably running high right now. In the days and weeks to come, there will be many frank conversations about where we go next. Opinions will vary on the solutions, but one thing is undeniable, as U.S. Attorney General Loretta Lynch put it, violence will never be the answer. "Now, after the events of this week, Americans across our country are feeling a sense of helplessness, of uncertainty and fear," Lynch said. "Now, these feeling are understandable, and they are justified. But the answer must not be violence. The answer is never violence." How do we stop senseless deaths? The answer is not easy. But this weekend, lets use this time for reflection, honest conversations with our neighbors and thoughts on how to build bridges rather than tear them down. That's my take, what's yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

July 16

My Take: It is only through unity, and not violence, that we will see positive change

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) -This has been another emotionally charged week. We cried together as President Obama eulogized five Dallas police officers who were senselessly killed as they served and protected others. That was followed by a series of heart wrenching funerals. All happening against the backdrop of continuing questions and outrage over fatal officer-involved shootings in Minnesota and Louisiana. Demonstrations continue across the country calling for an end to the violence. One such rally took place in Columbia just this past Sunday that spilled onto I-126. More events are planned this weekend. The serious issues being raised go all the way to Capitol Hill. In a moving speech, South Carolina Senator Tim Scott said he himself had repeatedly been targeted by racial profiling, even being stopped by capitol police. He asked others to imagine his frustration. "Recognize that just because you do not feel the pain, the anguish of another, does not mean it does not exist," U.S. Senator Tim Scott. "To ignore their struggles, our struggles, does not make them disappear." Our local leaders realize a lot of work needs to be done. Wednesday, a new group affiliated with "Black Lives Matter" met behind closed doors with law enforcement. The big takeaway is that minorities and police want many of the same things. "We definitely came to common ground on both sides," Patrick Tate, United We Stand organizer said. "We heard their full viewpoints. They heard all of our viewpoints. This is not going to be the only meeting." "I think it elevated the degree of trust, and it's encouraging to know that we can move productively forward," Police Chief Skip Holbrook said. Those present also denounced any acts of violence. There were also questions of gang members joining in the peaceful protests. Leaders don't want outside elements corrupting the "Black Lives Matter" message and, in turn, breeding more negative feelings and hostility. Dallas Police Chief David Brown perhaps summed it up best when he said this... "We're asking cops to do too much in this country," said Brown. "We are. We're just asking us to do too much. Every societal failure, we put it off to the cops to solve. We're hiring. Get off that protest line and put an application in. And we'll put you in your neighborhood and we will help you resolve some of the problems you're protesting about." This is a problem that won't be easily fixed. But both sides should be commended for expanding the dialogue. It is only through unity, and not violence, that we will see positive change. That's My Take, What's yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

August 10

My Take: It's a good idea to arm Guardsmen at South Carolina armories

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - Would it surprise you to learn that until just a few weeks ago, National Guard members could not carry concealed weapons at armories across the state? It surprised me. Until last year, South Carolina Guardsmen weren't permitted to carry concealed guns unless they were deployed to combat zones. That changed after five service members were killed by a terrorist in 2015 at two military installations in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Following those horrific acts, Congress asked Defense Secretary Ash Carter to come up with a plan that would give state leaders and installation commanders the ability to allow service members to carry personal sidearms while on duty. Last summer, Governor Nikki Haley signed an order calling for qualified Guard members to be trained and armed. South Carolina Adjutant General Bob Livingston cautiously supports the idea. "It's a sad commentary on our world that we are having to arm our facilities throughout the United States," Livingston said. "It is a balancing act between that very strong bond with the community and being prepared to deal with a bad actor that comes through that community." Since October, about 200 Guard members have received instruction that mirrors police training from SLED. "For our duty officers to step in and provide that immediate response to slow down or deter or defeat the attacker," Livingston said. Anonymous soldiers now have concealed weapons at all 68 Guard facilities. "So we are not going to talk about exactly how we have people armed or who is armed and when they're armed," Livingston said. "We just want people to know that we're armed. And we have the capability of defending ourselves and those around us." Military bases are under threat every day. Sometimes local law enforcement cannot get there quickly enough. Why not allow the people who work there to be armed? I applaud the government's decision to allow those who protect us to protect themselves. That's my take, what's yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

August 12

My Take: Discussion of use of SRO's is necessary

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - We are about to enter the start of another school year. It's a time for hitting the books, reconnecting with classmates and getting re-acclimated with the rigors of education. With the start of a new year, school safety is also a concern. Just days ago, the South Carolina Board Of Education announced new recommendations for School Resource Officer conduct. Those rules would limit officers' involvement with student discipline. It all comes nearly a year after video surfaced showing a Richland County Deputy pulling a teenager from her desk and tossing her across the floor. The deputy had been called to class because the student was being disruptive. That led to a firestorm of reaction both in opposition to-and in support of- the SRO's actions. The new rules call for new classifications for student misbehavior. Officers would no longer be allowed to get involved until offenses become a direct threat to safety, such as assault and gun possession. Now, it's not a done deal yet. The regulations still require another vote before heading to legislators. SROs were brought into the schools during the 1990's not only as a way to foster a safer learning environment for our kids, but to connect officers to the children and the parents of their communities. The WIS Editorial board applauds the efforts of the BOE for initiating the discussion on the use of school resource officers. With the critical eyes of the public now watching law enforcement agencies, it's important that the state re-evaluate and re-enforce the purpose of SROs in our schools. That's my take. What yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

August 23

My Take: Please reach out to Baton Rouge to help with flood recovery

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - Last year, South Carolinians and the rest of the country watched as a seemingly endless conveyor belt of rain punished the Palmetto State, dumping trillions of gallons of rain to a state already reeling from a national tragedy. Now, our friends in Baton Rouge find themselves suffering in almost the exact same way - coming off the deaths of three police officers and the shooting of an unarmed man -- thousands of Louisianans are facing the flood of the century. Some are even calling it more devastating than Hurricane Katrina. Thus far, 20,000 people have been rescued in the Baton Rouge floods. Thousands are without homes. Eleven people so far have died. Lives have been completely upended by a tragedy that far few could prepare for. But still, there are signs and messages of hope. Just as LSU reached out to the University of South Carolina with help, the Gamecocks are returning the favor with food drives and fundraisers of their own. Today, I ask that you reach your hand out to the Baton Rouge community to help them recover from this unbelievable disaster. WIS and Raycom are working together with the American Red Cross to assist in the recovery efforts. We have two methods you can donate to South Louisiana Flood relief. Text LAFLOODS to 90999 to donate $10 or go to wistv.com/floodrelief to donate more. Thank you, and let's show the South Louisiana community what we can do for them. Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

August 23

My Take: What kids should learn from Lochte incident in Rio

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) -The 2016 Summer Olympics have officially wrapped up. Competition wise, it was a banner two weeks with the United States claiming 121 medals, including 46 gold medals. The next nearest nation was China with 70. That success is something all Americans can be proud of. However, along with the Olympic glory came a source of embarrassment for the U.S. Not for anything that happened on the field of competition, but for an incident at a gas station of all places. Highly decorated Olympic swimmer Ryan Lochte and three other swimmers got caught up in a story that quickly got way out of hand. The swimmers claimed they were robbed at gunpoint. It immediately made headlines around the world. However, it turns out their story was far from the whole truth. After an exhaustive investigation, Rio police say the swimmers actually vandalized a bathroom and, when confronted, by police were forced to pay for the damage. After being exposed, Lochte finally came clean and admitted he had "exaggerated" his story. There is a lesson to be learned in all this. Americans, particularly our youth, watch the Olympians and look to them as more than athletes. Their behavior sets the tone for how we conduct ourselves in similar situations. Lochte and his fellow swimmers not only set a bad example, he cost himself multiple lucrative endorsement deals. Now, when someone searches his name, not only will they learn about his Olympic glory, but also a regrettable incident forever attached to his legacy. It would have been much simpler had the swimmers just admitted from the beginning that they had made a mistake and that they were sorry for juvenile behavior. People would have forgiven them and immediately moved on. Instead, by concocting a story...it turned into an international incident. Take your pill and swallow it. It may taste bitter in the short term, but it's better than a lifetime of infamy for the wrong decision. That's My Take, What's Yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

September 1

My Take: If Colin Kaepernick wants to see change, what solutions does he suggest?

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) -San Francisco 49er Quarterback Colin Kaepernick became a lightning rod of controversy after cameras caught him sitting during the playing of the national anthem. Kaepernick explained the reason for his decision saying it is his way of bringing attention to issues of inequality in this country. "There are a lot of things that are unjust and must be held accountable for and that's something that needs to change," Kaepernick said. "That is something that this country stands for freedom, liberty and justice for all and it's not happening right now." Kaepernick stressed that offending our military was not his intent. However, almost immediately, outraged fans began burning his jersey for his perceived disrespect of our country. Some have defended his position as well as the method he chose to display frustration. Many others agree with the message, but not necessarily the means. For sure, the issues he raises deserve our attention. Let's be clear, Kaepernick can and should speak his mind. No one is arguing otherwise. His ability to sit as a form of protest is a freedom countless Americans fought and died for. Therein lies the problem. By sitting, he is protesting the very country that allows him the opportunity to have such a platform. Some would even say he is being hypocritical. When word of this story broke Saturday, I also had an immediate reaction. As the proud father of two sons who serve in the military, I pulled out my American flag and put it on display outside my home. I then took a moment of quiet reflection. After a few days I, along with others, came to this conclusion. If Colin Kaepernick wants to see change, what specific solutions does he suggest? Words are easy. What are you going to do to foster better relationships and change? That's our challenge to you. There are certain things you do as an American. You fly your flag on patriotic holidays. You don't let that flag touch the ground and you stand for the national anthem. Be thankful you live in a country where you can speak your mind and when that anthem starts up, stand up and recognize your freedom. That's My Take, What's Yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

September 9

My Take: ‘Choking Game’ is a disgusting trend that won’t go away

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - “He just made a mistake.” Those five words have stuck with me for the past 12 hours after I returned from the visitation and funeral for 11-year-old Garrett Pope, Jr. Garrett’s father, Garrett Sr., is a member of the Raycom family and is processing an unspeakable tragedy. Garrett Jr. had just started 6th grade days before. He loved football. He had begun to play it. He had dreams of going to Clemson one day as well. But those dreams are just that after his body was discovered at home. “We don’t blame Garrett and we can’t blame ourselves,” Garrett Pope, Sr. said. The coroner ruled his death as accidental, but Garrett Jr.’s parents know his death has an exact cause – The Choking Game. “It’s like a quick high without doing drugs,” Pope said. “The game to an 11-year-old or 6-year-old or whatever, it’s fun. Video game, football game, basketball game, ‘Choking Game,’ hey that sounds like fun, let me try it.” The Choking Game is a dangerously unsafe trend that has been circling schools for decades. It involves cutting off your airways just enough to achieve a sense of euphoria. Euphoria was not what I saw at that funeral on Tuesday. What I saw were hundreds of grieving children – many of them almost too young enough to process and grieve the loss of one of their own – and their parents still dealing with the shock of Garrett Jr.’s tragic death. I will not forget the images of children crying as their friend was eulogized decades too soon all because of a disgusting trend that just won’t go away. The children of yesteryear used to hear about this trend through hushed whispers in the loud, crowded halls of schools around the country. Today, children receive and process information at a speed that will make most parents head spin. Garrett apparently heard about The Choking Game at school... The speed of information has changed, but one of the bedrocks of parenting has not – having an open communication and dialogue with our children so that they can be informed of the dangers of certain trends. As we pause and reflect on this inconceivable death, we hope you’ll take some time to talk to your children tonight. Hold them a little closer. Tell them you love them. Just hope you’ll never have to grieve them. That’s My Take, what’s yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

September 14

My Take: The Tunnel to Towers 5K Run and Walk is more than just a race

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - This Friday is an event we look forward to all year long. That’s when thousands will hit the streets of Columbia for the Tunnel To Towers 5k Run and Walk. The runners will include young and old, soldiers and firefighters, many in their gear. The fourth annual South Carolina event serves as a way to honor the life and legacy of New York firefighter Stephen Siller. The father of five was off-duty when he heard what happened at the World Trade Center on 9/11. Acting instinctively, he jumped into action to help the victims. “Stephen couldn’t get through the Brooklyn Battery Tunnel, which connects Brooklyn to Manhattan, and he ran through the tunnel to the towers, so we call it the Tunnel to Towers run,” Stephen’s brother George Siller said. “My brother, Firefighter Stephen Siller, died on 9/11. He ran from Brooklyn to Manhattan with 65 pounds of gear on, and he saved lives, but he lost his life in the process.” Siller was among 343 firefighters who died when the Twin Towers collapsed. The first Tunnel To Towers was held in 2002 in New York City. It has since grown around the country. This year’s event gets underway near the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center on Lincoln Street. All proceeds go to support the Tunnel To Towers Foundation which helps our injured military service members. A portion of the funds raised will also benefit South Carolina first responders, service members and their families. The opening ceremony is set for 6:30. WIS will be broadcasting live from the event Friday. And we invite you to join us for this very worthy cause. You can find out more on how to register by clicking here. We look forward to seeing you there. That’s My Take, What’s Yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

September 27

My Take: Don’t let terrorists stop you from doing what you love

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) - Events over the past week once again have many Americans concerned for their safety. Suspected terrorist, Ahmad Rahami, is now in custody after federal investigators say he was behind bombings in New York and New Jersey. It’s just the latest example of domestic terrorism that has some on edge. In light of the news, Americans are once again wondering if they could become collateral damage in the next terrorist attack. Thankfully, the suspect in this case was quickly captured without mass casualties. But sadly, it will only be a matter of time before another incident happens. So what are we to do? Live in fear...stay behind locked doors and be constantly suspicious of others? Not exactly. Statistically speaking, the likelihood of being the victim of a terror attack is very small. Security measures are more extensive than ever at entertainment events. Take for example, the new clear bag policy at USC games. And law enforcement officials are constantly looking at measures to increase safety even more. While you don’t need to live in paranoia, you should take precautions. If you notice something suspicious, report it. But don’t stop living your life. Keep going to games, keep enjoying concerts and...most importantly...keep going out to enjoy events with your family. That’s why life is all about. Because if we let the actions of a few keep us from doing the things we love...then the terrorists win. That’s My Take, What’s Yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

September 29

My Take: Let the system work before rushing to conclusions

COLUMBIA, SC (WIS) -Recent events in Charlotte have once again sparked widespread unrest. Last week, Keith Scott was fatally shot by a police. The following day, downtown Charlotte was flooded with people protesting what they considered an injustice. Those peaceful protests quickly turned into violent riots with looting, fires and even death. At one point, it appeared downtown Charlotte was on the verge of anarchy. How could things spin out of control so quickly in a modern city in today's world? Some say the rising tensions and frustrations over Scott's death come from a history of issues between law enforcement and African-Americans. Adding to those frustrations is the revelation that Charlotte police were in the area not to serve a warrant on Scott, but another man. "Black people needed to get treated fair," said one protester. "All lives matter but black people need to get treated fair." On the other hand, some pushed for protesters to be patient and allow the process to work. "We don't know what happened yet and I think we need to allow the investigation to take place before we start." We live in an age where people want instant information, instant answers and instant justice. But it takes time for law enforcement and authorities to gather all the facts; something many today are seemingly unwilling to accept. That's why it is more important than ever that we come together to incite peace instead of violence. Community leader Attorney I.S. Leevy Johnson said it best. "There's a major contrast between the old days and today and most people now possess what I call a fast food mentality that things must be resolved immediately and instantaneously, but that's not the way it is in real life." Today we often see people rush to conclusions and exercising extreme impatience with authorities without allowing the proper time for understanding. It is time to give thoughtful pause when incidents like this occur and allow our police and community leaders the time they need to do their jobs and let the system work the way it was intended to. That's my take, what's yours? Copyright 2016 WIS. All rights reserved.

3rd Quarter 2016 PSAs

Local Events Causes:

Walk/Race For Life
Race – SCSM Exhibit
Rise Above It – Drug Prevention
Healthy Learners SC
Healthy Learners Golf Tournament
Family Solutions with Von Gaskins
Columbia Urban League – Summer Work Program
WIS – American Red Cross Blood Drive
South Carolina State Museum

Other Events/Causes:

Hope For the Warriors – Disabled Veterans
Community Engagement
Hunger Prevention
Healthy Eating
High Blood Pressure
Job Training and Employment
Lupus Foundation
Fair Housing
Child Hunger Prevention
Paralyzed Veterans of America
Recycling
Stroke Awareness
Seat Belt Safety
Texting and Driving Prevention
US Navy
US Department of Health and Human Services
World Wildlife Fund
Wounded Warrior

The pages below are a sampling of the important issues covered by WIS in the 3rd Quarter:

Issue	Date	Program	Segment	Summary	Duration
Economic Concerns	7/5/2016	Noon Tuesday	12P WEST COLUMBIA CITY COUNCIL MEETS	Today -- West Columbia City Council members are holding their first regular council meeting for the month. They're expected to discuss the water and sewer rates in the city and DHEC legalities concerning a sanitary survey they received back in April. Last month, cit...	0:00:37
Healthcare	7/5/2016	Noon Tuesday	12P SC TELEMEDICINE	South Carolina's prisons agency is taking a high-tech approach to inmate health care. This week, the Department of Corrections and the Medical University of South Carolina are announcing a telemedicine partnership. Using videoconferencing, doctors will soon be able to e...	0:00:08
Education	7/5/2016	Noon Tuesday	12P ASSAULT REPORTING CLEMSON	Clemson University says a big jump in the number of sex offenses reported on campus happened after the school started an education and awareness campaign. 17 reports of sex offenses and dating violence were reported at Clemson in 2014-- after just	0:00:34

				two reports in 2012. On...
Economic Concerns	7/5/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	WEST COLUMBIA CITY COUNCIL MEETS	Tonight -- West Columbia City Council are set to discuss water and sewer rates. Last month, city council members proposed a rate increase in residents' water bills. The increase would add four dollars and two cents per three thousand gallons of water. Money from th...	0:00:02
Government	7/5/2016	News at 4pm Tuesday	4P TRUMP CAMPAIGNS IN RALEIGH	The presumptive Republican presidential nominee will be addressing his own supporters in North Carolina later this evening. He's set for a campaign event in Raleigh. Trump is expected to speak at 7 at the Duke Energy Center for Performing Arts. We'll have more from...	0:00:19
Local Events	7/5/2016	News at 4pm Tuesday	4P DEMOCRATIC HQ TICKET EVENT	In Columbia this morning, Democrats, some of whom have not been to a campaign event for years, turned up at the party's state headquarters to get free tickets, and then head to Charlotte. The event included	0:00:23 an enthusiastic delegation of supporters from the Midlands. So...

Government

7/5/2016 News at 4pm Tuesday

4P HILLARY CLINTON AND OBAMA CAMPAIGN

Happening right now - President Obama is making his campaign trail debut with presumptive Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton. The two are speaking at the Charlotte Convention Center. The President is hoping his appearance will help garner more support for Clinton who h...

0:00:22

7/5/2016 News at 4pm Tuesday

4P COSTCO ANNOUNCEMENT

COSTCO fans - rejoice! The warehouse club will officially be open for business in the midlands next month! On August 10th -- Columbia will join Charlotte, Greenville, and Charleston as a location for the popular store. It will be on Piney Grove Road and Fernandina Ro...

0:00:21

Government	7/5/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	NBC POLITICS	PRESIDENT OBAMA FLEW HILLARY CLINTON TO NORTH CAROLINA ON AIR FORCE ONE ... HER CAMPAIGN PAYING HER COST OF TRAVEL TO THIS BATTLEGROUND STATE FOR THEIR FIRST CAMPAIGNING TOGETHER (SOT: PRESIDENT OBAMA) "" BUT BIGGER NEWS CAME FROM FBI HEADQUARTERS. DIRECTOR JAMES COME...	0:01:34
Healthcare	7/5/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	MD EMERGENCY BLOOD DONATIONS	As the summer creeps on officials with the Red Cross say they're seeing a greater need for blood. The Red Cross is now issuing an emergency request for blood AND platelet donations. Officials say it's common for the blood supply to go down during summer months as peop...	0:00:25
Healthcare	7/6/2016	News at 5pm Wednesday	Leeza Gibbons First Look	A little more than a year after she won the title of Celebrity Apprentice, Leeza Gibbons has a dream coming to life in her hometown of Irmo. Leeza's Care Connection is ready to open its doors as a nonprofit offering free services for caregivers. The	0:00:36 official grand o...

Healthcare	7/6/2016	News at 5pm Wednesday	Targeting Opioids	(--- PKG ---) THE PROBLEM IS CLEAR. "It's terrible. You know, people are dying." LESS CLEAR -- HOW MUCH MONEY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL ALLOCATE TO BATTLE AMERICA'S OPIOID EPIDEMIC... WHICH CLAIMS DOZENS OF LIVES EVERY DAY. (nats from today's hearing) CONGR... Sam, Judi--- Corrections Director Bryan Stirling says this is a win for his department, for inmates, medical personnel, officers and taxpayers. It's a telemedicine system that allows a doctor at MUSC a hundred miles away to examine and interact with an inmate patient alm...	0:01:12
Healthcare	7/6/2016	News at 5pm Wednesday	Inmate Telemedicine

Healthcare	7/7/2016	News at 11 Wednesday	11P LEEZA GIBBONS FIRST LOOK	A little more than a year after she won the title of Celebrity Apprentice, Leeza Gibbons has a dream coming to life in her hometown of Irmo. Leeza's Care Connection is ready to open its doors as a nonprofit offering free services for caregivers. The official grand o... James Clark says it's his passion for education and his background that made him accept the role as president of SC State. He tells me he grew up in a time where it was not easy to get an education so his passion comes from personal experience. Also Clark has held leader...	0:00:55
Education	7/7/2016	News at 5pm Thursday	530P SCSU NEW PRESIDENT	Making headlines - South Carolina's state health department has announced they have found another case of the Zika virus in our state. There have now been seven cases of Zika confirmed in our state. Of those, six were in travelers who were infected abroad and diagnos...	0:00:34
Healthcare	7/7/2016	News at 5pm Thursday	5P 7TH ZIKA CASE IN SC		0:00:21

Economic Concerns	7/8/2016	News at 5pm Friday	5P JUNE MONTHLY JOB REPORT	POSITIVE NUMBERS IN JUNE'S MONTHLY JOBS REPORT. THE U-S LABOR DEPARTMENT IS REPORTING THAT EMPLOYERS HIRED AN ADDITIONAL 287-THOUSAND JOBS FOR THE MONTH. THAT'S FAR BETTER THAN THE PREVIOUS TWO MONTHS WHEN THE ECONOMY ADDED 11-THOUSAND IN MAY AND 144-THOUSAND IN APRIL.... Law enforcement and the community came together this afternoon to raise money for a Columbia Police Officer who was injured in the line of duty and is still recovering today. Officer Pete Conklin was injured while responding to an incident on Interstate-126 in May. T...	0:00:25
Local Events	7/8/2016	News at 4pm Friday	4P BLUE LINE COOKOUT	Many of our local law officers are still trying to process the news of last night's tragic shooting but tonight they are lifting each other up through prayer. Tonight area pastors, community members, and our local law enforcement are	0:00:28
Local Events	7/8/2016	News at 5pm Friday	5P PRAYER VIGIL TONIGHT	and our local law enforcement are	0:00:50 gathering here at this church to...

Local Events	7/8/2016	News at 5pm Friday	5P BLUE LINE COOKOUT	Law enforcement and members of the community are raising money for a Columbia Police Officer who was injured in the line of duty in May. Officer Pete Conklin was injured while responding to an incident on Interstate-126 and continues to recover. Today Columbia Polic...	0:00:30
Local Events	7/9/2016	News at 11 Friday	11P BLUE LINE COOKOUT	Law enforcement and the community came together this afternoon to raise money for a Columbia Police Officer who was injured in the line of duty and is still recovering today. Officer Pete Conklin was injured while responding to an incident on Interstate-126 in May. T...	0:00:28

Economic Concerns	7/9/2016	News at 11 Friday	11P JUNE MONTHLY JOB REPORT	POSITIVE NUMBERS IN JUNE'S MONTHLY JOBS REPORT. THE U-S LABOR DEPARTMENT IS REPORTING THAT EMPLOYERS HIRED AN ADDITIONAL 287-THOUSAND JOBS FOR THE MONTH. THAT'S FAR BETTER THAN THE PREVIOUS TWO MONTHS WHEN THE ECONOMY ADDED 11-THOUSAND IN MAY AND 144-THOUSAND IN APRIL. ... And with the opening of the new Y-M-C-A in downtown Columbia - there's going to be new employment opportunities to those in need of work. Transitions homeless recovery center has worked out an arrangement with the new Y. Clients of the center will be picking up tow...	0:00:27
Social Issues	7/11/2016	News at 5pm Monday	5P TRANSITIONS RECOVERY JOBS	And with the opening of the new Y-M-C-A in downtown Columbia - there's going to be new employment opportunities to those in need of work. Transitions homeless recovery center has worked out an arrangement with the new Y. Clients of the	0:00:34 center will be picking up tow...
Social Issues	7/11/2016	News at 6 Monday	6P TRANSITIONS RECOVERY JOBS	new Y. Clients of the

Local Events	7/11/2016	News at 5pm Monday	5P YMCA RIBBON CUTTING	It's been a process more than a year in the making. The new downtown Columbia YMCA location is officially open. A ribbon cutting was held at the Hampton Street facility today. The facility has a number of new amenities - including a yoga and pilates studio, trainin... Judi, Dawndy officials with that office tell me these meetings really serve to hear the stories of people who lost a lot in the flood. Disaster recovery here in the state has about $96 million to work with to help people get back on their feet.	0:00:24
Local Events	7/11/2016	News at 7pm Monday	FLOOD DISASTER RECOVERY MTG	The difficult thing is that ... And with the opening of the new Y-M-C-A in downtown Columbia - there's going to be new employment opportunities to those in need of work. Transitions homeless recovery center has worked out an arrangement with the new Y. Clients of the	0:00:59 center will be picking up tow...
Social Issues	7/12/2016	News at 11 Monday	11P TRANSITIONS RECOVERY JOBS

Healthcare	7/12/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	VISITING HEARTS	Because hearing that you have to have heart surgery can be daunting, there's an option for some patients who want to talk with someone else who's been there, done that. That's the concept of "Visiting Hearts" - a new program at Lexington Medical Center. It's a vol... Going through a heart procedure is so significant, it's nice to have someone to talk to about it. Someone who has gone through it him or herself. That's the concept of "Visiting Hearts" - a new program at Lexington Medical Center. It's a volunteer-based patie...	0:00:31
Healthcare	7/12/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	5P VISITING HEARTS	This was the first board meeting since James Clark officially took over as President. It was a different atmosphere than two weeks ago where the board appointed Clark as president leaving some folks upset. However, today you can see a lot more	0:00:33 present faces and smiles...
Education	7/12/2016	News at 4pm Tuesday	BJS SCSU MEETING		0:00:41

Social Issues	7/12/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	5P OPERATION OASIS	Staff at Oliver Gospel Mission are looking for your help to see to it that those in need stay hydrated this summer. The mission is in the midst of what it calls 'Operation Oasis.' It's collecting water, putting bottles on ice and then passing them out to homeless around... James Clark has made it clear as president, SC State's finances and budget will stay in the positive. It was just a few weeks ago where SACS announced the university was off probation and will keep its accreditation after financial problems. Clark says to maintain a...	0:00:28
Education	7/12/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	5P SCSU BOARD MEETING	Financial experts say millennials are missing out on something that they might soon regret. A new survey finds the vast majority of millennials just aren't interested in anything Wall Street or the stock market have to offer. According to Bankrate dot com,	0:00:43
Economic Concerns	7/12/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	5P MILLENNIALS AND STOCK MARKET		0:00:01 most 20 ...

Local Events	7/12/2016	News at 5pm Tuesday	5P SUMMER ACTIVITIES AND MEALS	Some local kids are getting a boost this summer from Richland School District 2. The district, in conjunction with Sodexo - is taking a food truck out to Hunter's Way Apartments on Percival road every Tuesday and Wednesday - to provide the kids who live there with a ... Again this summer, staff and volunteers of Oliver Gospel Mission are giving their fellowman a cup of cool water. Every summer the mission collects cases of water, puts the bottles on ice and then passes them out to those hot and thirsty around downtown Columbia. Crews... Staff at Oliver Gospel Mission are looking for your help to see to it that those in need stay hydrated this summer. The mission is in the midst of what it calls 'Operation Oasis.' It's collecting water,	0:00:38
Social Issues	7/12/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	MD OPERATION OASIS		0:00:59
Social Issues	7/13/2016	News at 11 Tuesday	11P OPERATION OASIS		0:00:09 putting bottles on ice and then passing them out to homeless...

Education	7/13/2016	News at 5pm Wednesday	5P SINGLE GENDER CLASSES	An academy focusing on specifically teaching males will soon open in Orangeburg School District Five. It's called the Orangeburg Leadership Academy and will be led by the former principal of Howard Middle School. Eric Brown says boys and girls learn differently. He ...	0:00:26
Education	7/13/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	SINGLE GENDER CLASSES	Another single gender school will open in Orangeburg next month. The Orangeburg Leadership Academy will be an all male school. Eric Brown, former principal of Howard Middle School is the administrator. He says research shows boys and girls learn differently. Brown... Doing some exercises at Cardiac Rehabilitation, 77-year-old Frank Ferez of West Columbia is literally putting his heart into it. Frank had to have his aortic valve replaced during open heart surgery in
Healthcare	7/13/2016	News at 5pm Wednesday	5P VISITING HEARTS		0:02:33

February. And he's finding returning to an active lifestyle is slow-goi...

WHOEVER SAID ABSENCE MAKES
THE HEART
GROW FONDER
WASN'T WATCHING
WEDNESDAY AS
DONALD TRUMP
MULLED OVER WHO TO PICK FOR VP...BECAUSE POTENTIAL FINAL PICKS WERE DOING A LOT TO GET QUALITY TIME WITH THEIR POTENTIAL BOSS.
INDIANA
GOVERNOR MIKE
PENCE HAD A
HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE...

7/13/2016 News at 4pm Wednesday

4P DONALD TRUMP VP

0:01:29

Dawndy and Sam,
the high court put the smackdown on
Attorney General
Alan Wilson and his effort to fire Pascoe.
Wilson and his office arguing Pascoe had gone too far as special prosecutor
after being appointed by Wilson---by trying to convene a state grand jury to look ...

Government

7/13/2016 News at 4pm Wednesday

4P PASCOE V
WILSON DECISION

0:00:22

Healthcare	7/13/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	VISITING HEARTS	Doing some exercises at Cardiac Rehabilitation, 77-year-old Frank Ferez of West Columbia is literally putting his heart into it. Frank had to have his aortic valve replaced during open heart surgery in February. And he's finding returning to an active lifestyle is slow-goi... Organizers of a community meeting planned for tomorrow are hoping it will bring stronger ties between police and the public in Richland County. The group 'Building Better Communities' will host the gathering at 'My House Restaurant' which is off Two Notch Road. Richl...	0:00:02
Social Issues	7/13/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	COMMUNITIES AND POLICE	Media were not allowed inside the closed-doors meeting, but (TBD). Just days ago, Black Lives Matter members -- and allies of that movement -- peacefully rallied at the State House and marched through Downtown Columbia. At one point, some of the Black Lives Matter ...	0:00:27
Social Issues	7/13/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	CPD AND BLM MEETING	At one point, some of the Black Lives Matter ...	0:01:31

Education	7/14/2016	6AM SUNRISE Thursday	Orangeburg Single Gender School	Another single gender school will open in Orangeburg next month. The Orangeburg Leadership Academy will be an all male school. Eric Brown, former principal of Howard Middle School is the administrator. He says research shows boys and girls learn differently. Brown... Health alert... The number of zika cases in the Carolinas is on the rise... DHEC says there are now 17 confirmed cases of Zika in our state. That's up from 7 just a week ago. In North Carolina-- there are 18 cases. Both state health depar... Right now... The Department of Social Services is holding a job fair in Orangeburg. It's happening until one o'clock on Neeses Highway so you stil have some time to get there. A variety of positions are available... including positions with the City of Orangeburg and t...	0:00:01
Healthcare	7/14/2016	Noon Thursday	12P NEW SC ZIKA CASES		0:00:21
Local Events	7/14/2016	Noon Thursday	12P DSS JOB FAIR		0:00:49

Social Issues	7/14/2016	Noon Thursday	12P COMMUNITY GROUP MEETS WITH CPD	Behind closed doors... ..Black Lives Matter members, members of a new movement - - United We Stand -- along with C-P-D's Chief Skip Holbrook and other top law enforcement leaders... ..talked for almost two hours. "You know, we laughed in there. You know, it got ... THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE APPLYING FOR UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS ARE HOLDING STEADY. THE LABOR DEPARTMENT REPORTS THAT WEEKLY APPLICATIONS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS remained AT 254- THOUSAND last week. THIS IS THE LOWEST NUMBER SINCE MID-APRIL. WEEKLY CLAIMS HAVE BEEN BEL...	0:02:02
Economic Concerns	7/14/2016	Noon Thursday	12P UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS	A huge hit in the fight against homelessness in South Carolina.... After recent changes in the US Department of Housing and Urban Development funding, several shelters no longer qualify for assistance. Kershaw County officials are	0:00:28 calling it a crisis situation, sayin...
Social Issues	7/14/2016	Noon Thursday	12P KERSHAW HOMELESS FUNDING		0:00:29

Local Events	7/14/2016	News at 5pm Thursday	5P ALR MATER FEST	Flyer to follow....Come join us as we celebrate everything Tomato, from Mater samwiches to Bacon, Lettuce, and Tomato, to Mater King and Queen! Tickets are $10 each and must bought in advance. See a Rider for more information. The number of cases of the Zika virus in the Carolinas is on the rise. DHEC says there are now 17 confirmed cases of Zika in our state. That's up ten from just a week ago. In North Carolina-- there are 18 cases. Both states' health departments sa...
Healthcare	7/14/2016	News at 4pm Thursday	4P NEW SC ZIKA CASES	Salmonella could be behind why more than 120 Lexington jail inmates got sick this week. That's the result of early tests performed by the Department of Health and Environmental Control. DHEC sent a team to the Lexington Detention Center yesterday and again today. ...	0:00:22
Healthcare	7/14/2016	News at 5pm Thursday	5P SICK INMATES		0:00:30

Social Issues	7/14/2016	News at 5pm Thursday	5P END HUNGER TOUR	A free summer meals program took its food truck to the Richland Library today. Richland School District one and Sodexo teamed up with the library to take food to the "Learn Freely" program, which gives kids the chance to read books, play games, and access computers. O... Salmonella could be the reason more than 120 Lexington jail inmates became sick this week. That is the result of early tests performed by the Department of Health and Environmental Control. Inmates have been suffering from a gastrointestinal ailment---the cause unk...	0:00:25
Healthcare	7/14/2016	News at 7pm Thursday	SICK INMATES	A new, 32 million dollar plant is heading to Orangeburg County. Carolina Chips, a wood processing plant, is setting up shop in Holly Hill. The facility is expected to create about 15 news jobs. It will produce wood chips and processed bark for the Kapstone Paper Mill i...	0:00:23
Economic Concerns	7/19/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	CAROLINA CHIPS OPENING IN OB		0:00:31

Local Events	7/19/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	LEXINGTON COUNTY APPRECIATION	Some people living in Lexington battled the heat today... all to cook up some burgers and dogs for local law enforcement. Employees and friends from Woodmen Life and other local businesses made lunch for Lexington County Sheriff's Deputies today at department headquar... And sending their pictures and video too. P South Carolina delegates and alternates tell WIS they've been seeing a convention much more energetic and inspiring than the media are showing. Yesterday and last night's theme was "make america safe again" And the deleg...	0:00:19
Government	7/19/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	LOCAL RNC DELEGATES	In light of things going on around the nation -- one man decided to give back to his local police department to say thank you. Jonathan Pagella (Puh-gel-uh) bought more than a dozen pizzas and brought them to the Columbia Police Department to feed hungry officers. ...	0:00:49
Local Events	7/20/2016	Noon Wednesday	12P PIZZA FOR CPD		0:00:19

Government	7/20/2016	Noon Wednesday	12P DISTRICT 10 SPECIAL ELECTION	Here in the Midlands... We now know who has officially secured the term for the seat held by former Richland County Councilman Kelvin Washington. Dalhi Myers will take over the seat that will expire at the end of December. A special election was held Tuesday. Ba... (super: Cleveland/Tuesday :00-:10) (nat sot - reporter yells --) " Governor Pence!" WHO IS MIKE PENCE? NEW TODAY: NEARLY HALF OF REGISTERED REPUBLICANS TELL NBC POLLSTERS THEY DON'T KNOW ENOUGH ABOUT PENCE TO DECIDE IF THEY LIKE HIM OR NOT. THE VICE PRESIDENT... New Columbia Police are continuing to show their commitment to the community -- before they take to the streets to fight crime. It's part of the department's "Beyond the Badge" campaign -- which took officers to the Harvest Hope Food Bank earlier this week. That's the vi...	0:00:34
Government	7/20/2016	Noon Wednesday	12P GOP DAY THREE		0:01:03
Local Events	7/20/2016	Noon Wednesday	12P BEYOND THE BADGE EVENTS		0:00:22

Government	7/20/2016	News at 4pm Wednesday	4P GOP CONVENTION DAY THREE	(super: Cleveland/Tuesday :00-:10) (nat sot - reporter yells --) " Governor Pence!" WHO IS MIKE PENCE? NEW TODAY: NEARLY HALF OF REGISTERED REPUBLICANS TELL NBC POLLSTERS THEY DON'T KNOW ENOUGH ABOUT PENCE TO DECIDE IF THEY LIKE HIM OR NOT. THE VICE PRESIDENT... In light of these officer shootings around the nation-- one man decided to thank his local police department. Jonathan Pagella (Puh-gel-uh) took more than a dozen pizzas to the Columbia Police Department to feed hungry officers. He says he did it as a small token ... Those new to the Columbia police force are continuing to show their commitment to the community -- before they take to the streets to fight crime. It's part of the department's "Beyond the Badge" campaign -- which took officers to the Harvest Hope Food Bank earlier this we...	0:01:16
Local Events	7/20/2016	News at 4pm Wednesday	12P PIZZA FOR CPD		0:00:19
Local Events	7/20/2016	News at 4pm Wednesday	12P BEYOND THE BADGE EVENTS		0:00:21

Social Issues	7/20/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	WIS FORUM ON RACE RELATIONS 6P TASKFORCE FORUM	17:36 The focus will really be about what we can do as moms people who are raising children of all ages from diverse backgrounds to really move the dialogue forward to have constructive crucial conversations in our community but sometimes people don't really want to have :53...	0:00:33
Social Issues	7/21/2016	News at 6 Thursday		The superintendent sayS this increase has no impact on the three schools in the district. In a 6 to 2 vote, the board voted for the increase in April. Here's the breakdown. Board members who accepted the raise will make $450 DOLLARS A MONTH compared to the $300 t...
Education	7/21/2016	News at 6 Thursday	6P CLARENDON 1 RAISES	THE NBA PULLS THE 2017 NBA ALL-STAR GAME FROM CHARLOTTE. THE LEAGUE IS RELOCATING THE ALL-STAR WEEKEND BECAUSE OF NORTH CAROLINA HOUSE BILL 2. THE NBA IS MAKING THE MOVE BECAUSE SUFFICIENT CHANGES HAVEN'T BEEN	0:00:31
Social Issues	7/21/2016	News at 6 Thursday	6P ALL STAR GAME LEAVING CLT		0:00:51

MADE TO HB2.
THE NEWLY ENACTED LAW
MANDATES
TRANSGENDER ...

Local Events	7/21/2016	News at 7pm Thursday	LAW ENFORCMENT PRAYER VIGIL	Right now, A prayer vigil is being held to honor and remember law enforcement officers who lost their lives. It's at the Reformation Lutheran Church on Union Street in Columbia. We'll have more on this story tonight at 11. The question still remains-- what will be done to fix failing schools in South Carolina. State lawmakers were given time to form a plan to improve the school-but Attorneys for the rural school districts say the legislators' court-ordered plan for fixing South Carolin...	0:00:05
Education	7/22/2016	News at 7pm Friday	SC SCHOOL FUNDING LAWSUIT	South Carolina's unemployment rate has fallen again.. now to a 15-year low. A new study shows more people had jobs in June than in May. The South Carolina unemployment rate has dropped from 5-point-6 percent to 5-point-4. In the past	0:00:26
Economic Concerns	7/22/2016	News at 7pm Friday	SC UNEMPLOYMENT RATE		0:00:18 year, the state's labor force has g...

Social Issues	7/23/2016	News at 11 Friday	Food Service Program Tour	One in four youth in our state are at-risk to experience hunger. So a group is working to make sure children are staying healthy during the summer months. Today was the last day of a two week food tour for End Child Hunger S-C. The group aims to build awareness in co...	0:00:42
Local Events	7/23/2016	News at 11 Friday	Guardians of the Night	If you put your two feet to the pavement, you'll be helping those on four feet fight crime. The "Guardians of the Night" K9 5K run and walk raises money to outfit the K9 team of the Richland County Sheriff's Department. The head of the K9 team, Lt. Kevin Hoover, and ...
Government	7/23/2016	News at 11 Friday	Harrison on DNC	South Carolina democratic party chairman Jaime Harrison is weighing in on Hillary's vice presidential pick. Saying based on experience, Kaine makes for a strong ticket. 00:39:50 "This is a man who was the governor of a state that was once read. And is now almost reliabl...

Government	7/23/2016	SATURDAY 9AM	Harrison on DNC	South Carolina democratic party chairman Jaime Harrison is weighing in on Hillary's vice presidential pick. Saying based on experience, Kaine makes for a strong ticket. 00:39:50 "This is a man who was the governor of a state that was once read. And is now almost reliab... The question still remains-- what will be done to fix failing schools in South Carolina. State lawmakers were given time to form a plan to improve the school-but Attorneys for the rural school districts say the legislators' court-ordered plan for fixing South Carolin... South Carolina's unemployment rate has fallen again.. now to a 15-year low. A new study shows more people had jobs in June than in May. The South Carolina unemployment rate has dropped from 5-	0:00:34
Education	7/23/2016	SATURDAY 9AM	SC SCHOOL FUNDING LAWSUIT		0:00:23
Economic Concerns	7/23/2016	SATURDAY 9AM	SC UNEMPLOYMENT RATE		0:00:20

				point-6 percent to 5-point-4. In the past year, the state's labor force has g...
Government	7/23/2016	SATURDAY WE NEWS AT 6	JAIME HARRISON ON DNC	All eyes now turn to Philadelphia... which hosts next week's Democratic National Convention. South Carolina Democratic Party chairman Jaime Harrison is praising Hillary Clinton's vice presidential pick --- Tim Kaine. Harrison says, based on experience, Kaine makes for a ...
Government	7/24/2016	Saturday WE NIGHTCAST	JAIME HARRISON ON DNC	All eyes now turn to Philadelphia... which hosts next week's Democratic National Convention. South Carolina Democratic Party chairman Jaime Harrison is praising Hillary Clinton's vice presidential pick --- Tim Kaine. Harrison says, based on experience, Kaine makes for a ...	0:00:39
Government	7/25/2016	News at 4pm Monday	CMO CLINTON IN CHARLOTTE	The national convention of the veterans of foreign wars is going on right now at the Charlotte Convention center. Hillary Clinton came here with a message of empathy for Americans who've served, talking about her father who joined the navy after Pearl	0:00:44

Harbor. She declar...

Government	7/26/2016	Noon Tuesday	CMO TRUMP IN CHARLOTTE	Trump declared America has a profound debt to veterans but that its political leadership has failed them and he promised to fix that. Trump spoke to the VFW, along with his running mate Mike Pence whose father served and whose son is a marine now. Trump, and pence decl... It was a rousing speech but also full of particulars for how Trump proposes to take better care of veterans. Trump, and his running mate Mike Pence spoke to the VFW's convention, pence saying the Veterans Administration is broken and that trump is the one to fix it. Tr... Mike pence 09:45:29 "Our VA is broken broken and this builder will fix it." Donald Trump's running mate Mike Pence joined him before hundreds of veterans at the VFW Convention and both declared their	0:01:02
Government	7/26/2016	News at 4pm Tuesday	CMO TRUMP IN CHARLOTTE	Mike pence 09:45:29 "Our VA is broken broken and this builder will fix it." Donald Trump's running mate Mike Pence joined him before hundreds of veterans at the VFW Convention and both declared their	0:00:46
Healthcare	7/26/2016	News at 6 Tuesday	TRUMP IN CHARLOTTE	Mike pence 09:45:29 "Our VA is broken broken and this builder will fix it." Donald Trump's running mate Mike Pence joined him before hundreds of veterans at the VFW Convention and both declared their	0:02:38 mission to improve services for vets and reform the Veterans Admin...

Government	7/26/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	WEST COLUMBIA ANNEXATION VOTE	New at 7, West Columbia could be getting a little bit bigger tonight. Today, voters in a portion of Lexington County near I-26's interchange with Augusta Road got to choose whether or not they'd like to be annexed into West Columbia. Poll workers say turnout was gre... Dawndy, Sam Dr. Davis will be having the official title of 'Superintendent Elect' over the next academic year. District two officials say the 'elect' portion of the title will be removed next July. That's when a three year contract for Davis with Richland Two will be... The next person to head the Richland Two School District says he's already setting goals for his time in office. This week district officials announced that Dr. Baron Davis has been named the 'superintendent elect' for the school	0:00:29
Education	7/26/2016	News at 7pm Tuesday	NEW RICHLAND 2 SUPER		0:00:37
Government	7/27/2016	Noon Wednesday	New Richland Two Superintendent		0:00:32

district. He'll be in that position...

Local Events	7/27/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	K9 BENEFIT RUN PVW	"I'll just get him to come to my side. And then he's suppose to follow me wherever I go." Arko is a Belgian Malinois. He's almost ten years old. He's highly trained. And highly intense on following his master's commands. He's the partner of Lt. Kevin Hoover with t... Dawndy, Sam certainly for area Democrats the anticipation level for speakers this evening is getting higher. Many Democrats I spoke to today said they're not fully behind Hillary Clinton yet --- but they are supporters of the president and therefore are anxious to hear wha... "I'll just get him to come to my side. And then he's suppose to follow me wherever I go." Arko is a Belgian Malinois. He's almost ten years old. He's highly trained. And highly intense on following his master's commands.	0:02:40
Local Events	7/27/2016	News at 7pm Wednesday	DNC WATCH PARTY PREVIEW		0:00:51
Local Events	7/28/2016	News at 11 Wednesday	K9 BENEFIT RUN PVW		0:02:43

				He's the partner of Lt. Kevin Hoover with t...
Local Events	7/28/2016	430AM SUNRISE Thursday	K9 Benefit Run PVW	"I'll just get him to come to my side. And then he's suppose to follow me wherever I go." Arko is a Belgian Malinois. He's almost ten years old. He's highly trained. And highly intense on following his master's commands. He's the partner of Lt. Kevin Hoover with t... They had one decades ago, during the times of segregation. In fact, I'm told their library was the only library for African-Americans in Richland County. Then, it was shut down about 40 years ago. Some of the neighbors who were alive at that time tell me it was a p... Sam, South Carolina voters will have two third-party options. Both the Libertarian and Green parties say their presidential and vice-presidential candidates will be on the November ballot here. But South Carolinians cannot	0:02:43
Social Issues	7/28/2016	News at 7pm Thursday	NEW EDGEWOOD LIBRARY		0:00:29
Government	7/29/2016	News at 6 Friday	No Write Ins		0:00:49

write in their choices for the top nationa...

Local Events	7/29/2016	News at 7pm Friday	MEMORIAL BOAT PROCESSION	A large crowd is gathering at the Frayed Knot bar tonight. Earlier this afternoon, 30 -40 boats will line up and made their way to the Frayed Knot Bar. Its been nearly a week since witnesses say Jonathon Prins and Charles Judge attempted to stop a man from beating a... Bringing the community together as one. Today, Rock Hill Missionary Baptist Church hosted a "We Are One" rally. It was held at J.C. Britton Park in Manning and included community members and first responders as a way to be united as one.	0:01:17
Local Events	7/29/2016	News at 7pm Friday	WE ARE ONE		0:00:17